A meeting of the inhabitants of the town of Needham qualified to vote in elections and in town affairs was held pursuant to the foregoing warrant in the Town Hall, in said town, on Monday, March 1, A. D. 1897.

ART. 1. Elwyn R. Thorpe and William G. Courtenay were appointed tellers by the town clerk to aid him in checking the names of voters and counting the votes for moderator, and they were sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties by the town clerk.

Emery Grover was chosen moderator by ballot and the check list was used.

ART. 2. Voted to proceed to choose by ballot the following officers: One town clerk; one town treasurer; three selectmen; three overseers of the poor; three assessors; one member of the school committee, for three years; one water commissioner, for three years; two trustees of the public library, for three years; two auditors; two constables and one tax collector; and to elect all other necessary town officers and to vote "yes" or "no" in answer to the following question: "Shall licenses be granted for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this town?"

The selectmen having appointed William G. Courtenay and George Evens as ballot clerks, they were sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties by the town clerk. The ballots prepared for use at this election by the town clerk were then delivered by him, in a sealed package, to said ballot clerks and their receipt taken therefor.

Cards of instruction were then posted in each of the voting compartments, and cards of instruction and the specimen ballots were posted in the hall outside of the guard rail.

The ballot box furnished by the secretary of the commonwealth for use at elections was opened publicly by the moderator and shown to be empty. The box was then locked and the key of the lower part delivered to William Wragg the officer in attendance at the election. The polls were then opened and were kept open until five minutes past six o'clock p. m., when, as the meeting had voted, they were closed.

At the opening of the polls the ballot box register stood at 0—0—0.

The selectmen having appointed A. J. Mathey, Elwyn R. Thorpe, Frank T. Probert, Joseph C. Foley, James Ford, Jr., Albert M. Miller, Charles H. Crowley and Elmer H. McIntosh as tellers, they were sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties by the moderator.

As the ballots were taken from the box they were audibly counted by the moderator, and the whole number was 714. The whole number cast by men voters was 617. The whole number cast by women voters was 97. The two check lists used for the men voters each showed 617 names checked thereon, and the two check lists for women voters each showed 97 names checked thereon.

To My Fellow Citizens of Needham:

It has been represented to me that I could, in a great measure, remove the strong feeling now prevailing in the town in regard to the question of a new school building. I am anxious for the welfare of the town and the prosperity of its schools, and actuated by a desire to harmonize all feeling and to restore, if possible, the good will of all sections, I cheerfully submit the following proposition: should the town, as a result of its deliberations decide that the best interests of the schools call for a new high school building, I will denote, free from all restrictions, a lot of land for a location of the same, adjoining the St. Joseph church on Highland avenue, giving one hundred and seventy-five (175) feet frontage on Highland avenue and extending to the proposed Oakland avenue. My only request is—and this is in no wise a condition—that the building shall present an attractive front on Oakland avenue as well as on Highland avenue.

Very respectfully yours,

JOHN MOSELEY.”

REPORT

OF THE

Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE TOWN OF NEEDHAM :

The Board of Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor herewith submit their Annual Report of Expenditures in the several departments under their charge, and also a brief review of the work of the year and its results. One of the most important of all the duties which devolve upon the Selectmen, and that which alike interests all classes of citizens, is the care and improvement of the roads and sidewalks, and as the standard of good roads is being constantly advanced in this commonwealth and as our own good town has ever been well to the front, with our limited means it is always necessary to observe the strictest economy in the use of the money appropriated in order that the best possible results may be realized and the well deserved reputation of the Town of Needham as being one of the foremost towns in the state in the matter of good roads sustained. The work of constructing and repairing roads, sidewalks and bridges, during the past year, has been under the supervision of Mr. David F. Henderson as superintendent of streets, whose long experience in such lines recommended him for the position, and the amount and quality of the work performed, and the condition of the streets at the close of the season, is an assurance that the people of the town have received good value for the money expended. The details of the work of the highway department are fully set forth in the report of the superintendent of streets hereto appended. The advent of the Street Railway introduces a new service on the streets in which the tracks are located, and consequently necessitates constant watchfulness in order that the car service may not unnecessarily interfere with the general travel and proper use and wear of the roadway. The season's work commenced with the widening and improvement of Webster street between Central ave. and Greendale ave., as laid out by the selectmen and accepted by the town. The plan and specification called for a sixty-foot roadway and required a large amount of cutting and filling. The roadway has been finished to its full width with the exception that at one point where the cut is deepest and a long slope is required, a good deal of gravel remains to be removed in order to complete the work according to the plan. At another point the new line calls for the moving of a low wall about one foot from the old line. This part of the work has been left incomplete for two reasons. First, the necessity of giving seasonable attention to general repairs of highways in other parts of the town, and secondly, the insufficiency of the appropriation. Pine Grove street has been constructed in a thorough manner on lines satisfactory to all parties. The work of widening and improving Great Plain ave. as laid out by the county commissioners from a point near the house of Curtis McIntosh to Wellesley line, has been carried out, and a good solid road bed made with a great improvement in the grade at Powder House hill. The road being laid out to a width of 60 feet allows the large trees near the house of Mr. James Mackintosh to remain without interfering with the carriage travel, and in the event of the location of an electric railway on the ave. will admit of a separation of the tracks and sidewalk from the roadway and therefore continue to beautify the street. The cost of the improvement was a little in excess of the appropriation, but the strictest economy was observed with no waste either of time or material. All the labor on the roads has been done by residents of the town, who have worked directly under the supervision of the superintendent of streets, and all the men employed have been faithful to the interests of the town as their own, with such results that we believe that the town made no mistake in declining to have the work let out to contractors.

The time is at hand when it will be necessary for the town to secure additional sources of supply for road material, as the gravel banks under control of the town are fast becoming exhausted. The stone crusher, elevator, engine and boiler, still stand on private land for which the town pays an annual rental of $15, but because all the stone must be carted to the machine from long distances, and the town has refused to provide a more convenient location so that it may be used with proper economy, it remains dead property, much to the disadvantage of the cause of good roads. The limited and intermittent use of crushed stone on our roads has demonstrated the value of the material, and the experience in the use of the plant in unfavorable circumstances has proved that properly located and used, it may be of great advantage in the repair of highways. If a supply of crushed stone could be provided ready for use in the early spring, when the frost is coming out of the ground, in deep ruts and soft clayey places, substantial and permanent improvements could be made in many parts of roads which are sadly in need of proper treatment, but have been neglected for lack of proper material. Early in the summer when the stage of high water in the river had passed, it was discovered that Central ave. bridge at the Upper Falls was in an unsafe condition and required immediate attention. The board met the highway committee of the city of Newton, with Mr. Woods, the city engineer, at the bridge, and found that the stone arches and abutments were laid with open joints without cement and admitted the surface water from the roadway to percolate through and into the spaces between the stones, which freezing in winter had forced the joints apart, thus weakening the structure. It was also found that the action of the water at the foot of the arches had undermined and washed out the gravel from the bases on the southerly side to such an extent as to imperatively demand immediate repairs. It further appeared that the track of the Newton and Boston Street Railway had been laid over the bridge in such a manner as to hasten its demoralization. It was therefore determined that travel should be suspended until arrangements could be made to properly safeguard the public. It was estimated that the cost of repairing the bridge without any widening would be $2500, and as under ordinary conditions one half of the expense would fall upon the town of Needham, $1250 would have been our share; but as the Street Railway Co. had put an extra servitude on the bridge it appeared only just and reasonable that it should bear its fair share of the cost. This was the opinion of the authorities of both the city of Newton and the town of Needham. Accordingly, negotiations were entered upon with the Street Railway Co. and plans for reconstruction prepared, which resulted in an agreement for the reconstruction of the southern portion of the bridge and an addition of ten feet to the width of the roadway; the work to be done according to plans and under the direction of the city engineer. The expense to be borne as follows: The Newton and Boston Street Railway to pay $1250, the town of Needham to pay twenty-five per cent. of the contract price and the city of Newton the remainder. The contract price was $3,750, making the share of expense to be borne by this town $937.50. The work has been completed according to contract in a most thorough manner. The arches are dovetailed into the old part of the bridge with cemented joints, and connected on the top with waterproof material so that no water from the surface can enter the joints but must pass off at openings made for the purpose. We also have a roadway 12 feet in width between the railway track and the southern parapet. This expense was unforeseen but unavoidable, and has caused an excessive draft on the appropriation for incidentals, which will have to be provided for in the next assessment. We regret the necessity for this expense, but feel assured that the emergency has been met in a way which will have the approval of all our citizens having knowledge of the conditions.

SIDEWALKS AND GUTTERS.—Concrete sidewalks have been laid on the west side of Highland ave., between Hunnewell street and West street, and on the south side of Great Plain ave., and southwest side of Dedham ave., between E. B. Fowler's store and Lincoln street, also appurtenant crosswalks in each locality. The gutter on Great Plain ave. which drains Railroad square, has been thoroughly constructed of concrete at a grade which insures the proper draining of the street and square at that point, and is, we believe, a permanent improvement.

We recommend that more attention be given to the construction of gutters in general, and especially at the steep grade on West street, which is obliged to carry a great quantity of water and should be provided with a permanent gutter of material that will not wash out, so that the road bed may be saved from the constant breaking away to which it is subject under present conditions after a great rainfall or thaw. Work of that character calls for a considerable outlay of money, but when once well done saves a great deal more than its cost in the course of two or three seasons in the wear of the road.

All the new sidewalks laid during the year have been done on the application of the owners of abutting land who have paid one half the cost of construction according to the vote of the town. Necessary repairs of existing sidewalks have been made, but the appropriation for the purpose was insufficient to do all that might reasonably be desired. As the villages extend more sidewalks are required, and if the demands of our residents are to be met a larger appropriation for sidewalks will be necessary for the coming year.

CARE AND IMPROVEMENT OF PUBLIC GROUNDS.—The Common at Highlandville has been kept in its usual condition of neatness and beauty under the supervision of Mr. William Carter, who has been the custodian from the first improvement of the grounds, and is in the season of flowers a most beautiful spot, exciting the admiration of all who pass that way. Dedham Avenue Park has been continued under the care of Mr. Francis deM. Dunn, and is a credit to the good taste of the custodian, and an honor to the town. The Common at Highland and Great Plain aves., the largest and not the least conspicuous of all the open squares belonging to the town, having been long neglected until it had become little better than barren waste, not at all creditable to the good taste of the community the board were constrained to commence the improvement of the grounds according to a plan which had been previously prepared and received the approval of our predecessors in office, believing that in so doing they were acting in accordance with the wishes of the citizens, and would be supported in the undertaking. In this they were not mistaken, as the town generously increased the appropriation for public grounds from $100 to $600 in order to carry on the work. Accordingly, paths have been constructed by the removal of the loam and properly filled with stones and rubble, the surface being graded with the best screened gravel. The lawns were graded with loam well fertilized and sown to grass. Space near the center has been reserved for a fountain and water pipe laid to the sidewalk on Highland avenue. We recommend that the water commissioners be instructed to connect the street main with the pipe on the Common so that should any public spirited citizen be moved to present the town with an ornamental fountain to adorn the ground the necessary water may be provided. In any event water will be needed if the work of improving the Common is to continue. The plan contemplates the planting of shrubs and flowers at the intersections and curves of the path and it is hoped that the idea will be carried out and the improvement of Needham common continued until it shall become the gem of our beautiful town. A space at the intersection of Garden and May streets has been improved and ornamented through the efforts of Messrs. Whitney and Richards, and a small sum from the appropriation has been expended for flowers and plants for the same. We suggest and earnestly recommend that as the town has already voted to accept the "Park Act," Park Commissioners be elected under that law at the annual meeting, so that the appropriation which the town may make, may be properly expended and the public grounds be cared for by officers interested in the work and having no other duties; thus securing constant, continuous and systematic care and improvement of all our public grounds.

STREET LIGHTING.—The service of the Natick Gas and Electric Company in lighting the streets has been, we believe, satisfactory. Whenever there has been a slight failure to furnish full power, as may occasionally happen, we have always found the servants of the company ready to respond and remedy the difficulty promptly. The system has been extended in Reservoir and Carter streets by the addition of eight lights. The term of the contract with the Eliot Falls Company for supplying current will expire next October, but the town has an option of renewal for another term of five years at the same price and terms, and, as it is altogether to the advantage of the town, we recommend that measures be taken for its renewal.

POLICE. The regular police service of the town consists of two men on regular night duty as watchmen. Officer Alexander Lynes has continued in service at Highlandville. Officer George Adams having resigned, Mr. Norman McKenzie has been appointed to serve at Needham. Officer Wm. Wragg has continued on general duty, and Florence F. Crowley assigned to evening service at the Upper Falls. Special officers have been appointed, as will be seen by reference to the list of town officers. No serious disturbance or breaking of law has occurred and we believe that all our guardians of the peace have been faithful to their duties. Several cases of depredations in unoccupied property by persons entirely foreign to the town have been detected and the parties brought to justice by the vigilance of our special officers, and we hope that the lesson will teach the members of the fraternity of travelling thieves that Needham is a place for them to avoid.

BOARD OF HEALTH.—No board of health having been chosen by the town, the duties of such board are made by the public statutes to devolve upon the selectmen. In pursuance of these duties, Constable George Twigg was appointed to be health officer and agent of the board. All complaints of nuisances and violations of regulations have been investigated and if the facts were found to warrant the complaint steps were at once taken to remove the cause thereof with as little inconvenience and annoyance to the parties interested as consistent to the maintenance of healthful conditions. The most serious complaint and the one most difficult to remove is that of the board of water commissioners in regard to the existence of several large establishments for the raising and feeding of swine on the territory supposed to be drained by our water supply. The parties named in the complaint have been notified and warned to abate the nuisance, as it is a menace to the purity of our water supply, and informed that steps may be taken to compel the removal of the cause of complaint. In some cases the parties have expressed a willingness to voluntarily withdraw if a little time is allowed them to gradually reduce the stock; in others no reply has been made. We hope that all will see the reasonableness and justice of the case, and by voluntarily action render stringent measures unnecessary.

NATICK AND COCHITUATE STREET RAILWAY CO.—On petition of the president and directors of the Natick and Cochituate Street Railway Co., and after a public hearing duly advertised according to law, a franchise was granted the company, allowing them to construct tracks and operate cars by the single trolley system through Great Plain avenue from Wellesley line to and on Dedham avenue to a point near Warren street; to cross Webster street near the house of Margaret R. Gates; again on Great Plain avenue from near Bird's Hill Spring to Dedham line, with such regulations and restrictions as will secure the rights and interests of the town. Whether the company will build the line is problematical and time alone will determine.

POOR.—As overseers of the poor, the board have endeavored to discharge their duties with due regard to the interests of the town, and also to the claims of those whose misfortunes have brought them into circumstances in which they have been obliged to call for such assistance as is their due under the laws of the state. At present we have but two fully supported at the Wellesley almshouse. One receives full support in a private family in Newton and one in the town of Raynham. Three are supported in asylums for the insane. Mr. John M. Carter, whose legal settlement is in this town, but residing in the town of Hopkinton, was found living alone in March last and very ill, utterly unable to provide for himself, and consequently we were called upon to provide for him. His condition was such as to call not only for constant medical attendance but for the continual care of a nurse, which was necessarily expensive. We therefore arranged with the overseers of the poor of Hopkinton, as soon as he could be moved from his house, to take him into their almshouse and provide for him there. In December his nephew took charge of him and placed him in the care of friends, with the understanding with this board that they are to receive from this town not exceeding three dollars per week, until such time as he shall be able to take care of himself. It is not probable that he will ever be in condition to support himself, as he is advanced in years and suffering from an incurable disease. The policy of temporary aid and partial support by the payment of rent and occasional supplies of fuel and provisions to the aged and invalid poor has been continued, each case being carefully investigated, the object being to prevent rather than to encourage pauperism. The expenses of this department have been quite large during the past year in view of the depression of business in the various industrial establishments in and near by the town, and consequent lack of employment of those whose means of supporting their families depend upon labor, and compared with other towns similarly situated, they will not appear excessive.

LITIGATION.—We have been very fortunate in the matter of litigation during the year. No action for damages having been commenced and none laying over, we have not been called upon to defend the interest of the town in court. Early in December an action of contract was commenced against the town by Architect Charles Brigham of Watertown, who claims compensation for services as architect on the new high school house. The basis of this claim not being a matter within the knowledge of the selectmen, it only remained for the board as agents of the town to prepare to defend the town in court. Accordingly we have placed the case in the hands of W. S. Slocum Esq., as attorney for the town, who has filed our answer. The case cannot be reached before April.

RAILROAD BRIDGE AT HUNNEWELL STREET.—The increase of travel, both by teams and foot passengers, as well as street cars, on Hunnewell street, called attention to the necessity of widening the bridge over the New England Railroad. The bridge was never of sufficient width, being scarcely more than 20 feet in the clear, and at present it becomes more than ever apparent that the public convenience and safety demand that its width be extended. The board having failed to interest the officials of the railroad company to the extent that they were willing to widen their bridge voluntarily, petitioned the county commissioners to make the necessary decree and order, which they have done. They decree that the bridge shall be rebuilt of iron, forty feet in width, at a height of eighteen feet above the railroad tracks, with approaches to correspond. The New England Railroad Company have appealed to the railroad commissioners and the matter is still pending. Should the decree be confirmed, the question of apportioning the expense will be settled by a commission appointed by the Superior Court.

GUIDE BOARDS.—Guide boards as previously reported have been still maintained and several additional boards have been erected at points where they are very much needed. Some old boards that have become illegible and dilapidated should be replaced with new ones. Some additional iron street signs have been purchased and should be erected as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The fire department is in first-class condition. The old board of engineers were re-appointed and organized by the re-election of Henry A. Kingsbury as chief engineer. The hose and ladder companies are well organized and officered, and for efficient service we believe our department is not excelled by any volunteer force in the state. For details of the work of the year, we refer to the report of the chief herewith submitted.

Report of Superintendant of Streets.

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF SELECTMEN OF THE TOWN OF NEEDHAM.

GENTLEMEN :—I hereby submit the report of the street department for the year ending December 31, 1897. The year's work has been one of unusual activity, commencing the middle of March and continuing to the last of December, with the exception of nearly two weeks in July during the extreme heat.

The past season has been an unusually unfavorable one for our streets, owing to heavy showers washing them badly in many places.

There was much work accomplished with the road scraper on the shoulders and in the gutters, improving the condition and appearance of many streets. Considerable attention has been given to the cutting of bushes growing upon the roadside, where in many places they had become very troublesome. Quite a lot has been accomplished in repairing sidewalks, and there is need of a great deal more. Good men have been employed, who are citizens of the town, and have shown themselves prompt and efficient in their work. Good teams have been hired and the drivers required to help each other load when waiting.

The work commenced with the construction of Webster street, from Hillside avenue to Central avenue near the residence of Wm. E. Hurd. This was a costly undertaking, there being much material that could not be used in the construction of the street.

The hill on the east side of the street was covered with loam to the depth of three to four feet, which had to be wasted in filling up the old gravel pit at Hurd's corner. The road is built in a thorough manner, the bed being made of graded stone from ten to thirty inches in depth, covered with fine binding gravel and then rolled. The cost of this street was two thousand three hundred and eighty-one dollars and seven cents ($2,381.07).

The electric railroad going through Hillside avenue made it necessary to set back the fence five feet in front of land of Mr. Wm. Carter's, widening the street and raising the grade fifteen to twenty inches from the base of the hill to Webster street. This alteration improved the looks of the street at an expense of one hundred and forty-two dollars ($142), the railroad company paying one hundred and twenty dollars ($120) of this expense.

The ties and rails were laid on the surface of the road bed on Central avenue from W. E. Hurd's to near Eliot school house. The streets had to be graded and widened with stone and gravel to the level of the track, the expense being five hundred and one dollars and twenty-five cents ($501.25), the railroad company paying one hundred and sixty dollars ($160) of the amount.

The approaches to the bridge on Hunnewell street were filled to the depth of from ten to twenty inches, improving the grades on both sides of the bridge and widening the road bed several feet, at an expense of one hundred dollars ($100), the railroad company paying the same.

Chapel street was surfaced as soon as the railroad track was laid, at an expense of sixty-eight dollars ($68), the railroad company paying twenty-five dollars and fifty cents ($25.50) of the expense.

The common was surfaced with loam from Ireland's pit and scrapings of gutters from Great Plain and Dedham avenues. The walks, as laid out by C. A. Hicks, according to plan drawn by John F. Mills, were made of stone and gravel from Hewett's pit, at a cost of four hundred and forty-five dollars and nine cents ($445.09).

Pine Grove street was built as laid out by the selectmen. The gravel was given by Mr. Wm. Carter, this gift saving the town many dollars. The gravel given was but a short distance from the street. Expense of this street, two hundred and thirty-three dollars and twenty-five cents ($233.25).

The widening and rebuilding of Great Plain avenue was an expensive piece of work, as the material and gravel for surfacing had to be drawn a long distance.

Nothing in the immediate vicinity could be found suitable for the road except about one hundred and fifty yards of stone which was blasted from side of road, costing seventy-five cents per square yard. This price does not include quarrying, sharpening of drills, or material for blasting.

The road bed was scraped of loam with the road machine to the width as ordered by the county commissioners, and macadamized with small stone from Hewett's pit to the depth of ten to twenty-four inches and surfaced with six inches of fine gravel from same pit. This material was used from the residence of Mr. Curtis McIntosh to the west side of hill, beyond the residence of Mr. Nathaniel Wales. From there to Wellesley line gravel from E. G. Fuller's pit was used. This will prove which is the best and cheapest material for a road. The gravel from Fuller's pit cost eighty-three and one-third cents per two-horse load; from Hewett's pit, one dollar and twenty-one cents per load.

Seven large trees were removed from centre and side of road, and a sidewalk was made nearly the length of one side of the street. Expense of this street, twenty-two hundred and nine dollars and fifty-seven cents ($2,209.57). This includes Mr. Fuller's bill for gravel, which was thirty-nine dollars and twenty cents ($39.20).

There have been five miles and one hundred and sixty-seven rods of roads graveled in town this year, about ten miles of road gutters scraped, and one mile and two hundred seventy-nine rods of sidewalks repaired.

HOSE.

The amount of hose on hand is 3,900 feet good hose, 500 feet of which was purchased this year, 400 feet in fair condition, making 4,300 feet serviceable hose. There are 200 feet that leak but very little, which would be advisable to get repaired.

APPARATUS.

The apparatus is all in good repair with the exception of No. 3 hose reel, which ought to be replaced by a new one the coming year. I would recommend swing harness be purchased the coming spring for the hose wagons. I also recommend some pony chemical fire extinguishers to be carried on the apparatus. The experience of the past few years in extinguishing small fires in buildings has demonstrated that the water damage has been twice the amount as by fire. These incipient fires can be extinguished with chemical extinguishers with very little damage by water.

STATIONS.

The stations are in reasonably good repair with the exception of the outsides, which are sadly in need of a coat of paint. The town water was put in Station 2 this year. The cellar wall in the rear of Station 1 was relaid, it having fallen in; the chimneys on both stations were relaid from the roof up.

I would recommend the following appropriations for the year 1898:

|  |         |
|--|---------|
| Maintenance of fire department,  | $1,000 |
| Incidentals of fire department,  | 200     |
| Engineers' salaries,   | 150     |
| Maintenance fire alarm telegraph,  | 350     |
| Swing harnesses and hangers, chemical fireextinguishers and equipments for fire de-partment, | 500     |

FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH.

The fire alarm telegraph consists of 38 miles wire, 5 miles of which were added this year, 22 signal stations or street boxes, including one private station. There are 3 tower strikers, 7 gongs, two of which are private, 4 tappers, 1 5-circuit switch board, 1 fuse board, 1 current indicator, 1 test clock. There were four new stations added to the system this year, located as follows: Station 26, Great Plain ave., near Levi Ladd's. Station 39, Greendale ave. and High street. Station 56, Hillside ave. and Hunnewell street. Station 91, South and Chestnut streets. The hose tower on Station 2 was extended and a 1,486-lb. bell placed therein, and a new No. 3 striker, which has made a decided improvement in the alarm system for fire in that district. The alarm system has been well taken care of throughout the year and has never failed to work when occasion demanded its use.

I desire to express my gratitude to the officers and members of this department, for the prompt and faithful manner in which one and all have attended to their various duties the past year; also to the Superintendent of Fire Alarm for the excellent care in keeping the alarm system up to the standard at all times.

Respectfully submitted,

H. A. KINGSBURY,

Chief of Fire Department.

Report of the Trustees of the Public Library.

With a circulation in 1897 of nearly fifteen thousand volumes, it is needless to call attention to the usefulness and importance of our free public library. The town has in its library nearly five thousand volumes, and almost the entire number are "live books." We think it would be difficult to find a popular library the size of ours of better quality, or containing a larger per cent of books that represent the literature of the period. It is true that we have a few bulky publications of the United States Government that are seldom, if ever, consulted, and it is generally admitted that imperfect sets of these documents, which number thousands, add but little to the value of a library.

There is one feature now lacking which the trustees hope to introduce in the near future, and that is a collection of all the books and pamphlets published by, or having special reference to the town of Needham. No one can reasonably expect a town library to have a large department of local history, but everything relating to the history of that particular town should be there.

The branch library at Highlandville has been improved by the addition of new cases for books, and is a convenience to the citizens.

All persons who visit our library must realize that the town is sadly in need of more space for its books and for the readers who desire to examine the numerous current periodicals, or to use the works intended for reference. It is hoped that before the end of 1898 this disadvantage, which is becoming serious, will be obviated by the removal of the library to larger quarters, where an increased number of readers will be made comfortable and enabled to read under favorable conditions.

We are fortunate in having a librarian, who, by attending the meetings of the Massachusetts Library Club and by availing herself of the information in the Library Journal, and in similar publications, is acquiring knowledge of library work which qualifies her to render most valuable service. There is no reason why in another ten years Needham should not possess one of the best town libraries in the Commonwealth.

With more security from fire, we shall receive gifts of rare and valuable books that we cannot now expect to have intrusted to us.

GEORGE K. CLARKE,

Report of the School Committee.

The school committee respectfully submit their annual report, together with that of the Superintendent, for the financial year ending January 31, 1897.

The committee are glad to testify to the faithful and efficient work of the Superintendent and his corps of teachers. Mr. Walradt has justified their expectations that the schools would suffer no detriment under new guidance. The work has been done quietly and without friction and the energies of the teachers have been directed to the one end of improvement in teaching. Possibly no better results educationally are more apparent than in the lower grades in the Kimball School, where the rooms were so overcrowded as to necessitate assistant teachers, who were obliged to teach, as was stated in our report of last year, in the same room with the regular teachers, or else in one of the cloak rooms of the building. By means of a special appropriation of $250, partitions were made in three rooms, thereby making three more, one additional for the High School and two for the lower grades. This provided for a subdivision of the five lower grades with independent teachers. Though no more seating room is gained, yet the beneficial results to the children must be plain to all. The committee also found an overcrowded condition of pupils in the Avery School, and were obliged to furnish another room, and provide an additional teacher. All of the rooms in this building are now occupied. The largest amount of money expended for repairs has been at the Avery School.

On May 5th an order was received from the District Police, Department of Inspection of Factories, Public Buildings, etc., directing the committee to see that a stairway be constructed in the rear of the building to be used as a fire escape, also to provide the building with better and additional means of ventilation so that each pupil be accommodated with at least thirty cubic feet per minute of properly warmed fresh air. With a special appropriation of $4,000 granted by the town the committee have had a suitable stairway constructed and the building provided with the best modern means of heating and ventilating. Separate toilets for boys and girls have been placed in the basement. The closets and urinals are of the best make and are ventilated by large pipes connected with special flues heated by means of steam coils. The building has been painted and such other repairs made as place it in the list of modern schoolhouses and make it a credit to the town. To put the Kimball School building in equally good condition would require an appropriation of $3,500. With the exception of a stairway in the rear, used as a fire escape, with which the building is already provided, the need of a more adequate heating apparatus, more ventilation and additional and better sanitary accommodations is as great as it hitherto was at the Avery School. The committee respectfully request the voters to make a careful perusal of that part of the Superintendent's report relating to this important matter, with his recommendation for immediate action.

During the summer vacation more than two hundred desks and the same number of chairs, some of them having been in use over thirty years, were repaired at the small expense of twenty-five cents each by a process of scraping, planing, etc., which left them practically as good as new. So skillfully was this work done that many teachers upon entering their rooms at the beginning of the school year thought that new desks had been furnished.

With two more teachers than last year and with a new school building to care for, the committee ask for an increase in the appropriations for the ensuing year. We recommend $13,500 for schools, including the salary of the Superintendent, $1,000 for incidentals, and $1,000 for books and supplies. We ask also for $200 for shingling and repairs for the Dwight School.

For further information in regard to the schools we refer the citizens to the report of the Superintendent.

FRANCIS DeM. DUNN.
ADELINE E. HARRIS,
JOHN W. TITUS,

School Committee.

REPORT
OF THE
Superintendent of the Public Schools
OF NEEDHAM.

To the School Committee of Needham:

Having completed one year's service in my present position, I take pleasure in acknowledging the kind consideration shown to me by all with whom I have been officially associated. Not only do I appreciate the support and confidence of the committee and teachers, but I also esteem highly the acquiescence of parents in several official decisions under circumstances where want of harmony would have been detrimental to the interests of the schools. Equally pleasing to me have been the cheerful greetings of the children as I have met them in the schools and elsewhere. With such incentives, want of zeal has been impossible.

WORK OF THE SCHOOLS.

The work of the schools during the year has not been of a pyrotechnic order. Everybody entrusted with their administration appears to have been animated with a purpose to make the work of the year contribute to the welfare of the pupils rather than to make it of exhibition order. Several teachers have withdrawn from the service of the town. Great care has been exercised in the selection of their successors and so far no mistaken choice is apparent. On the whole, the teaching force is stronger than it was a year ago.

THE POLLARD METHOD.

The Pollard method of teaching reading has been used here for two years. In his last annual report my predecessor devoted considerable space to this subject and his exposition of the system needs no repetition here. Another year will be necessary for forming a final estimate of its value, but appearances are now greatly in its favor.

There is, however, a partially unsolved problem in connection with this method. The value of introducing the child as soon as possible to the companionship of good books cannot be overestimated. As soon as he begins to read, he should have new material before the old has become of no interest to him. But the books now available for use in the lower grades, although well adapted to children whose vocabulary is extended in a haphazard way, with the expectation of their taking the pronunciation of every new word (often a faulty pronunciation) from the teacher, do not give pupils of primary grades a sufficient supply of new reading material. An enthusiastic teacher can supply much by use of the blackboard, but at best such a supply is limited and likely to be less carefully prepared than the material of well-edited books. It is to be hoped that the extension of the Pollard method will bring into the market a greater variety of books well adapted to its needs. In the meantime every teacher is urged to use every available means to widen the scope of the children's reading, without impairing her teaching according to Pollard principles, and to supplement this by reading to them from carefully selected books.

Finally, it is important that as pupils progress through higher grades the value of the Pollard training be not impaired by neglect. The teachers of these grades should not tell the pupils the pronunciation of unfamiliar words that will continue to be introduced, but should require them to apply principles already learned and to make constant use of the dictionary for assistance that may be necessary.

DRAWING AND MUSIC.

The work in drawing has been carried along under the same supervisor as heretofore. Miss Prince is availing herself of the opportunities for extending the usefulness of this branch of education, and as the work develops elsewhere she is endeavoring, within the limits of our resources, to develop it heré. The partial introduction of color work has been reasonably successful, but more time and experience on the part of teachers and pupils is necessary to produce results that are visible in towns where the work is fully established. I have no doubt that, under proper encouragement, supervisor, teachers and pupils will justify this innovation as an important advance in drawing.

During much of the time since the opening of the schools in September the children have been without the valuable instruction of Mr. Archibald, our supervisor of music. Our sympathy is extended to Mr. Archibald and we assure him of our belief that the affliction which prostrated him has also been a detriment to our schools. The teachers seem to have done the best they could under the circumstances. To the well-known ability and zeal of Mr. Archibald, supplemented by the earnestness of faithful teachers and the efforts of ambitious pupils, may we hopefully look for progress that will eventually make the loss imperceptible.

A slight increase in the expense for special instructors will tend to produce marked results in music and drawing. With abundant resources, a town should provide for weekly visits of the special instructors to every school room. Our own town may well provide for bi-weekly visits. Unfortunately, some of the schools do not receive such visits and inequality of results is in evidence. I recommend additional provision for special instruction to equalize the number of visits to each room, and to make that number not less than one for every two weeks of the school year.

Drawing in the High School has not received the attention that it deserves. The new High School building will provide proper accommodations for drawing classes and the special instructor should be employed for a time sufficient to enable the school to utilize those accommodations for the welfare of the pupils.

THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

The town is to be congratulated upon the prospect of soon having suitable accommodations for its High School. The work on the new building is already sufficiently advanced to give those unfamiliar with the plans an idea of its adaptation to the purpose for which it was designed. Before the publication of another annual report it is believed that actual use of the building will demonstrate its already apparent theoretical utility. A detailed description of the building is reserved for a subsequent report. For the present a general outline will suffice.

The building is designed to anticipate the wants of the High School until the population of the town shall have become doubled. It will easily seat about two hundred and fifty pupils without using rooms that are not intended for classrooms. It will provide suitable laboratory accommodations, including a dark chamber for purposes of photography. A good drawing and art room will be provided. A library will be ready to receive books that the school ought to have as soon as public funds or private generosity is available to supply them. There is ample space for manual training and for a gymnasium. Separate offices will be prepared for the principal and for the school committee and superintendent. For the assistant teachers a comfortable reception room will be provided. Sanitaries and lavatories will be distributed for the convenience of pupils and teachers. Book closets will be numerous and storage rooms will be abundant. Bicycle rooms have not been forgotten. An assembly hall with stage and ante-rooms will accommodate large audiences. Every classroom will be large and well lighted, and will have two exits. Well-ventilated cloak rooms will be located in the adjoining corridors. The building will be wired for electric lighting of every part. Communication between rooms will be effected by telephone. The heating and ventilating will conform to the requirements of the law. Through the generosity of our fellow citizen, Mr. Frederick P. Glover, a large clock, with dial facing Highland avenue, and a time-program clock will be supplied.

The completed building will be another landmark showing the progress of education in Massachusetts. Needham voices the sentiment of the Old Bay State. A good education is the priceless legacy which the tax-payers of to-day are determined to bestow upon the boys and girls. Let the boys and girls accept the legacy with equal determination to give to the coming generation every additional advantage which time shall demonstrate to be necessary and which shall be within the means of a prosperous community.

OUR GRADUATES.

Recent graduates of the High School have passed examinations for admission to colleges of high rank and are now successfully pursuing advanced courses of study. A pupil who had finished the third year of our High School course was prepared by additional study during last summer for admission to college, and is now a student at Harvard University. These facts reflect credit upon the successful students and upon their teachers. They are also a source of proper pride in our High School and a justification of the great expense incurred in providing suitable accommodations for its additional usefulness. Furthermore, they will inspire pupils of the lower schools and the parents of these pupils to make every effort and every sacrifice necessary to reap the benefit of the educational opportunities generously provided by this typical New England town.

ADMISSION TO PRIMARY GRADES.

Under the present system of grading and promotions, classes are advanced one grade annually at the beginning of the school year in September. To the first primary grade pupils are admitted not only at the beginning of the school year but also at the opening of the spring term in April. This arrangement is detrimental to the interests of the primary grades and of little value to the pupils who are admitted in April. Coming to school long after the classes have been formed, they are unable to do the work of those classes, and the little that they learn during one term is insufficient to qualify them for admission to the second grade in September. Consequently they must remain in the first grade another year, "marking time," while the newly admitted pupils are overtaking them, and finally they enter second grade no sooner than those who entered a term later than they. Furthermore, if the teacher endeavors to give them reasonable attention during the April term, she gives it at the expense of the pupils who entered in September. If she make sufficient effort to prepare the September pupils for promotion to the next grade, the April pupils are in danger of falling into idle and listless habits for want of necessary attention.

Realizing this necessarily unfortunate result of admitting two classes annually while promoting but one, many towns have adopted the simple, efficacious remedy of allowing no pupils to enter a school after the beginning of the school year unless qualified by previous instruction to enter an existing class. Having personal knowledge of the merits of this remedy, I unhesitatingly recommend that hereafter the admission of the so-called "April children" be discontinued.

MANUAL TRAINING.

The approaching completion of the new High School, and the facilities which it will provide, suggest a recommendation for a modest beginning of manual training in our schools. Manual training is no longer an educational experiment. Massachusetts is fully committed to it as an important element of public school instruction, and more populous communities are compelled by law to provide it.

When every boy was required to assist in the work of the farm or shop, and when every girl had to share the burdens of hard-working housewives, little need of manual training in the public schools was experienced. Boys of eighteen could keep farm tools and buildings in repair and girls of the same age could do the family sewing and cooking. To-day we must look to the public schools for such manual training as will supply the need of the education no longer available in many homes. The majority of high school graduates are too old to acquire readily the manual dexterity essential to a high grade of workmanship, and unless destined for college they tend to drift into low-salaried clerkships with little hope for advancement in the face of the intense competition to which they are subjected. The breaking down of the apprenticeship system has been followed by no other avenue for learning a trade. Hence, from a purely utilitarian standpoint, modern civilization is looking to the state to provide manual training that will supply skilled workmen without drawing them so largely, as at present, from foreign lands.

But the most intelligent demand for manual training in the public schools does not come from a utilitarian standpoint. To an increasingly appreciated extent, manual training is highly educational. Kindergartners have long demonstrated that a most ready approach to the mind is through the medium of the hand. Wherever manual training has been introduced, no sacrifice of mental progress has been noticed. On the other hand, the evidences of its quickening influence are numerous.

These facts suggest the proper scope of manual training in the public schools. We may differ as to the kind of manual work that should be introduced, but its nature seems clear. The public schools should not produce expert carpenters or skilful dressmakers. If we employ the schools for training skilled workers in one occupation, every other occupation may fairly claim equal attention. Nor should any kind of work be continued until the movement of the hand becomes automatic. Before the active operation of the mind becomes unnecessary, the work should be changed.

The work should be within the limits of the child's strength and should be of a nature to arouse his active interest. The materials used should be easily worked according to the age of the pupil, and should not be so expensive as to make unreasonable demands upon the public treasury. The instruction should be largely individual to enable every pupil to do his best. In this way, quick intellects and nimble hands will not become deadened by inactive waiting for slower pupils nor will sluggish brains and clumsy hands be goaded to discouragement by vain efforts of the teacher to secure uniform results.

In manual training courses, no more than in other courses, is uniformity to be expected or desired. Every city and every town will work out a system that seems adapted to its needs and resources. At present the most commonly used materials are clay, paper, cardboard, worsted, cloth, food-products, wood and iron. These are used in the various occupations of the kindergarten and primary school, in sewing, in cooking and in shop work.

It is not my purpose to formulate at this time a detailed course of manual training, nor to give, even in outline, an ideal course. But I hope to give suggestions that might serve as a basis for formulating a practical course for cities and towns able and willing to introduce it.

Manual training should be introduced the day the child first enters school and should be continued until he is entitled to the high-school diploma. The occupations of the kindergarten can be continued and extended in the lower primary grades, the principal materials being paper, clay, cardboard and worsted. A little later knife-work, using an adjustable cover for the desks, and sewing can be introduced. In the upper grammar grades and in the lowest class of the High School, the sloyd system of woodwork, and cooking with its attendant duties may be adopted. For the other classes of the High School, advanced woodwork, including turning and carving, elementary iron work and advanced instruction and practice in domestic economy will furnish a fitting termination of manual training in connection with the ordinary public school. The possible establishment of advanced trade schools is not within the scope of this report.

As a desirable beginning of manual training in the schools of Needham, I recommend a required course of sloyd for the boys of the eighth and ninth grades, extending the same opportunity as an elective to the boys of the High School. For the girls of the eighth and ninth grades, I suggest a required course in sewing, allowing High School girls to elect the same course. Finally, if within the available funds for public schools, an elective course in cooking is a desirable opportunity for girls of the High School.

With the extension of the manual course to younger pupils, the training suggested in the preceding paragraph could be begun one or more grades lower; but without preliminary training it would be less satisfactory than to begin with the grades already mentioned.

I am certain that if the town will enter upon the plan proposed, manual training will be here to stay. I have yet to hear of a town that has given it up after introducing it. My official connection with the schools of two other towns where it is in operation, has given me an intimate knowledge not only of its educational value but also of the enthusiasm with which parents and pupils welcome it.

THE KIMBALL SCHOOL.

It has been the policy of this town to give, as nearly as possible, equal school advantages to the pupils of every part of the town. This policy is in accordance with the natural right of every child and should be continued. An urgent need of its application exists at the present time. Complying with the mandate of the state authorities, the town has recently made, at the Avery School, improvements that have contributed greatly to the comfort, safety and health of its pupils. Similar improvements are imperatively needed at the Kimball School. Its ventilation is imperfect and for a long time the impossibility of adequately heating it under adverse circumstances has been well known. At the very moment of writing this paragraph a part of the Kimball pupils are on the streets because of the dangerous temperature of their schoolroom. The cost of the necessary improvement will be great; but can this town afford longer to deprive children of precious hours of instruction and to imperil their health by exposure to cold and to a vitiated atmosphere?

ENRICHMENT OF ELEMENTARY COURSES.

Many towns in the state have successfully begun the enrichment of the elementary school course by the introduction of studies heretofore confined to the High School. My predecessor made a small beginning here. Algebra and book-keeping are taught in grammar grades and concrete geometry receives some attention. Since my connection with the schools, the importance of nature work has been constantly presented to the teachers of all grammar and primary grades.

The limits of this report do not admit of a full treatment of this subject. The theory of enrichment is that the pupils of elementary schools can learn the elements of many subjects more easily than they can acquire a complete knowledge of fewer things. A five-year-old pupil can learn, for example, something about a common plant that he can see and handle.

Year by year he can add to his knowledge until, as a graduate from the High School, he can readily analyze and name hundreds of plants that he has never seen. How much more rational is such a process of learning than to defer the study of botany until he enters the High School, there to attempt to acquire a knowledge of plants by memorizing from a text-book what other persons have said about plants! Applying this illustration in other directions, we see that enrichment does not involve the overtaking of teachers and pupils by the addition of more work. It does involve, however, the elimination of much of the premature, profitless and needless instruction heretofore given in the subjects that have long held a place in elementary public schools. Modern text-books already exhibit much of this "weeding out" process. Progressive teachers are paving the way for still further text-book improvement. We may safely summarize practical enrichment as a process whereby new instruction is closely correlated with the essential part of the old instruction, so that without increasing his burdens, diluting his knowledge of facts, or lessening his mental discipline, the pupil is introduced at an early age to broader fields of knowledge from which, in accordance with his natural and acquired ability, he can gather with profit and pleasure. Not more but better instruction and study are demanded.

As the next step in the enrichment of the grammar-school course, I recommend the study of a foreign language in the ninth grade. This recommendation is made with the distinct purpose of so closely correlating it with the study of our own language as to increase the pupil's knowledge of English and his power of using it intelligently and forcibly. If knowledge of the foreign language be the chief end of its introduction, the higher and better purpose of extending the pupil's knowledge of his mother tongue will be perverted. I am satisfied that the proper teaching in the ninth grade, of French or Latin, in connection with English, consuming the same amount of time now devoted to English alone, will result in the use of better English at the close of the year than is now apparent, without French or Latin.

Opinions differ as to the language which should first be introduced. It is doubtful whether a demonstration of the accuracy of either view is possible. If introduced, as some urge, at an early period of school life, the argument seems to favor French. Later the choice appears to be less important, but the importance of studying one or the other is widely accepted. If introduced as late as the ninth year, the choice may well depend upon the fitness of the teacher to whom the class is assigned. In some cities special teachers are employed. The finances of this town would not justify such special instruction. Hence my final recommendation is to introduce either French or Latin according to the qualifications of the regular teachers who may be employed at the time of its introduction.

NEEDS OF THE SCHOOLS.

The needs of public schools are ever increasing. Our own schools have been well supplied in certain lines, but other wants have not been satisfied. Year by year additions to a good working library for teachers and pupils should be made. Books of reference, pedagogical books, and all other books bearing upon the work of the schools, should be readily accessible. The public library may well be made to supplement the school library, but it can never take the place of the school library. I recommend the appropriation of a definite sum every year for the growth of the school library.

The useful policy of supplying the schools with good supplementary reading I trust will be continued.

In some of the schools the maps are very old and in a dilapidated condition. It is hoped that new maps will soon be supplied and that additional globes will be provided.

Some of the schools are without sets of weights and measures. These are not very expensive and every school should have them without delay.

In view of the great interest shown by children in nature work and the increasing value attached to its proper study, a beginning of school museums should be made. With a suitable stimulus from the public treasury, the pupils and their friends may be depended upon to make interesting and valuable additions to objects provided for nature study by the town.

Schoolhouses and their surroundings should be object lessons of aesthetic culture. Refined people take delight in beautiful and well-kept lawns and flower gardens, well-painted houses, clean floors and properly tinted walls appropriately adorned with works of art. A beginning has been made here.

Some of our schools compare favorably, in respect to lawns, with other schools that have come under my observation. The more remote a school is situated from the well-kept lawns of a town, the more pressing is the need for a well-kept school lawn as an object lesson. It may be too expensive to make the entire surface of our large school grounds well-kept lawns; but at least a portion of each should be so kept.

Every schoolhouse should have a flower garden. If the town will bear the expense of fertilizing and seed, the children may be depended upon to perform the manual labor, and the teachers will supervise the work.

An appropriation for painting the outside and inside of at least one schoolhouse should be made every year.

Needham school walls are not wholly without good pictures, but more are needed. The completion of the new High School will create a special want in this direction. It is hoped that a public movement may be started to satisfy the want of pictures and other works of art, not only for the High School but also for the other schools. The youngest pupil is not too young to come under the educating and refining influence of works of art.

The proper equipment of supplies for the laboratories and art room of the new High School is not provided for by the appropriation for its erection. Suitable provision should be made at the approaching town meeting.

CONCLUSION.

Good schools are expensive. The days of the "little red schoolhouse," with its forlorn desks, cheerless walls, wretched outbuildings and general dilapidation have passed. No longer is brute physical strength the chief qualification for teaching. No longer is everybody and anybody considered competent to teach primary grades. For every grade, education, talent and culture are demanded and the increasing call for these is slowly but surely increasing their market value. Books and other supplies are needed in ever-increasing quantity to meet the demands of an ever-advancing standard of civilization. Merchants and manufacturers are obliged to provide better and better facilities for the prosecution of their business. Man's desires are ever in advance of his ability to satisfy them; but as his means increase, he devotes his means to the greater satisfaction of his wants. The world moves and men move with it. Hence we make no apology for stating the needs of the public schools and asking that within the limitations of a prudent but generous economy they be satisfied by public appropriations. We shall be faithless to our trust if we allow the schools to stand still while shops, factories and private residences become more and more commodious, pleasant and useful.

In view of the courtesy heretofore extended to me when making recommendations, even when my recommendations have not received the full approval of the committee, I have written this report with the assurance that it will be accorded whatever consideration it merits. To base every act and every thought upon the welfare and progress of the schools which it is my honor and delight to serve, shall continue to be my ideal.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY M. WALRADT,
Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF THE HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL.

Mr. H. M. Walradt, Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Sir:—I herewith submit to you my annual report. I am glad to say that I feel this last year has been one of progress in many ways. The accommodations especially have been greatly improved by the addition of another room formed by the division of the old recitation room.

We now have two assistants giving their entire time to the High School, and yet could wish for more with the school at its present size. I may comment here upon the size of the school at the opening of the fall term. Our original enrollment in September was one hundred and four pupils. This is an increase of over one-third. The enrollment for September, 1895, was fifty-nine, and for September, 1896, was sixty-seven. During the fall term we have lost but a small percentage.

Eight scholars left the school last June, seven graduating. Two boys took the Harvard examinations and passed them very creditably. One of the boys took a credit in Latin. Another boy went to Tufts College. Two girls went to Bridgewater Normal School. This makes five scholars out of eight intending to continue their education. There is about the same percentage of college preparatory students in the next two classes, an unusually good record in a school of this size. I may affirm the statement made in my last annual report that "The desire for a higher education on the part of any student directly raises the standard of his own work and indirectly the standard of the school."

The attendance during the year has been good. I should like to call attention to the fact that absence always injures the work of any scholar, as the ground lost in this way can never be wholly recovered.

The spirit of the school is very good. The scholars do their work cheerfully and with the right feeling, looking at study in the main as a privilege rather than as a task.

The school library has received one important addition this year. Mr. F. DeM. Dunn, Chairman of the School Committee, presented the school with a complete set of the Century Dictionary. This valuable reference book has been of great use to teachers and scholars alike. A fine set of microscopic slides has also been received from Dr. O. H. Hubbard, while Mr. George K. Clarke presented the school with a large new flag. This flag was raised with appropriate ceremonies in the spring.

The work is progressing well in every department, and while the work in science, and to some extent the work in the other departments, is hampered by the still crowded condition of the school, we feel that all things are as they should be since we stand so near the new high school.

Respectfully Yours,

WILLIAM HOLLIS GODFREY.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF DRAWING.

---

Mr. H. M. Walradt, Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Sir:—I wish to say in my report for this year's work in drawing that I feel a decided improvement has been made throughout all the schools, especially since the opening of school in September.

The changes which have been made in the grading of the schools have proved very beneficial in enabling me to bring the scholars to the point where they can do work which is being done in drawing in other places in the same grades.

We have been able to introduce water color in the four upper grades, although too late to do much work this fall. We are looking forward to commencing the work thoroughly in the spring, working from the natural flowers and using the color for the decorative and applied designs.

From the interest already shown by teachers and pupils, I think it will prove of great benefit to the course of drawing in making that part of the work which includes nature work color and design more attractive to the pupils.

The training acquired by the use of color and a study of the harmonies of color found in nature, which is necessary in order to correctly represent color found in natural objects, is of great benefit to the pupil in enabling him to appreciate a little of the beauty of the objects about him.

In connection with the work in drawing I am trying to introduce a brief study of the famous artists and their most important works. In order to do this it is necessary to have good photographs, and although we have made but a small beginning, I hope by another year to have for the use of the schools a set of photographs of some of the most famous paintings, as only by studying the best in art can we learn to appreciate that which is best.

I intend to arrange a sketch class to meet once in two weeks, as soon as the light will permit. I hope to make it beneficial to the older pupils especially, in aiding them in their free-hand drawing.

Respectfully submitted,

ALICE M. PRINCE.

EIGHTH
OF THE
WATER COMMISSIONERS.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE TOWN OF NEEDHAM, MASSACHUSETTS.

The board of water commissioners herewith submit their eighth annual report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1897.

At the annual town meeting in March, Mr. John M. Hodge was re-elected water commissioner for a term of three years.

The board organized by electing Mr. E. G. Pond, chairman, and appointing George A. Adams, clerk.

Mr. Charles H. Mitchell was re-appointed engineer at pumping station, and George A. Adams, superintendent and water registrar.

EXTENSIONS.

There have been no extensions made during the year.

Several applications were received for the extension of the main in "private ways," but after due consideration the board decided "that it was unwise to make further extensions in 'private ways' until they were properly laid out and graded," and in most cases where a short extension of the main was petitioned for, a service pipe has been laid instead, at the expense of the applicant.

SERVICE PIPES.

The contract for putting in service pipes was continued another year with Buckley Brothers, at the same prices as heretofore.

GUARANTEES.

In 1898 the following guarantees will expire: On Webster street, from Dedham avenue to South street. South street, from Webster to Chestnut streets. Great Plain avenue, from Central avenue west. Oakland avenue, from May street to Highland avenue; and Highland avenue, from J. W. Coppinger's to Newton line.

The income from these extensions, under the guarantee, is six hundred and thirty dollars, while the income by regular water rates will be about three hundred and fifty dollars; thus it will be seen that the expiration of the guarantee will materially affect the income of the water department, as it will lessen the revenue about three hundred dollars.

WATER SUPPLY.

Your water commissioners came to the conclusion during the early part of the summer that it was advisable to take steps towards maintaining the purity of our water supply. Not that the water is as bad as represented by some of the town's people, for its true condition is shown in a communication received from the state board of health as follows: "An examination of the results of chemical analysis of samples of water collected from the well from time to time since the works were first constructed, shows that while the water is at present of excellent quality, it has shown a slight tendency to deteriorate in recent years."

In view of the fact, and realizing that it was necessary to keep the water as free from pollution as possible, we sent a communication to the local board of health on the thirty-first day of August, in part as follows: "In pursuance of our duties in connection with maintaining the purity of Needham water supply, we feel it incumbent upon ourselves to call your attention to what is unquestionably a source of constant menace, viz., the keeping of a large number of swine by different individuals located on the water-shed from which our supply is obtained. The purity of our water supply has always been a source of much gratification to our citizens, and we feel that every precaution should be taken to preserve it from pollution, and in order to eradicate one of the principal sources of contamination, we request you in your capacity of board of health to cause the discontinuance by all persons located on our water-shed of the keeping of swine."

While the action of the board of health was not in strict accord with the request made by your commissioners, yet they have taken some action, and the state board of health assure us that the local board of health has ample authority to take all necessary action to secure the desired result, and we are in hopes that a date will be set by the board in the near future when the keeping of swine on the water-shed must terminate. About two months after we had made the foregoing request of the board of health, "The Needham Improvement Society" caused a town meeting to be called on October 29th, 1897. "To see what action the town would take for the permanent security of our water supply against pollution," with the following result:

“Voted that the water commissioners take immediate action for the permanent security of our water supply against pollution, and for their assistance they be empowered to employ a sanitary engineer.”

In accordance with the foregoing instruction your water commissioners on the 10th day of November sent a communication to the state board of health requesting it to send an agent or engineer to examine the water-shed and make such recommendations and take such action as the circumstances required.

On the third day of December an engineer of the state board came to Needham and with the local board of health and the water commissioners inspected the water-shed, and a few days later the engineer made a thorough examination of the whole valley brook and its tributaries, and from the result of the examination we respectfully make the following recommendation.

That the town purchase the track of land lying north of the town spring and bounded as follows :

Beginning at the north-west corner of the “Town Spring Lot” and running in an easterly direction on the line of said lot to its north-easterly corner, thence in a northerly direction to the easterly corner of land owned by Mr. F. P. Glover on Great Plain avenue, thence following Great Plain avenue northerly and westerly to a point about two hundred feet west of the brook running through the land of Mrs. M. R. Gates, and thence running in a southerly direction on top of the ridge to point of beginning, comprising thirty acres (more or less) of land on either side of the brook and being the immediate water-shed of our town supply.

In making the recommendation we not only have in view the purity of the water, but also the fact that the supply must be increased in a very short time, and what seems to be the most practical plan is to carry out the suggestion made by the engineer in his preliminary report in 1890, which was as follows:

“There are also opportunities for adding to a supply from this place (meaning Colburn’s brook water-shed) in various ways, thus increasing its permanency, a basin could be formed in the valley of the brook above the springs for storing storm water and thus keeping the ground which is composed of clean porous sand and gravel, there being no peat in this valley, thoroughly saturated continually, or a second supply well could be sunk lower down the brook as the soundings showed good water bearing gravel south of the springs.”

Whatever action is taken towards increasing the supply it is necessary that the town should own the land as recommended and we intend to have it surveyed and plans submitted to the town at the annual meeting.

BONDS.

HYDRANTS.

The hydrants have been painted and tested and are in good order. The one on the corner of Hillside avenue and Dale street extension was found to be unsafe and was repaired by putting in a new "barrel."

Six hydrants have been moved during the year, as follows: Three on Webster street, as they interfered with the electric car tracks. One on Great Plain avenue, near the residence of Mr. Nathaniel Wales, on account of widening the avenue. One on Greendale avenue, near the residence of Mr. William Lee, in order to make room for sidewalk; and one on Central avenue, near Newton line, due to widening the bridge and changing roadway.

There were thirty-one feet of six inch pipe taken out and the same number used in making the changes, leaving the total number of feet of pipe the same as reported last year.

GATES.

The gates have been inspected and repacked when found necessary and are in good working order.

STANDPIPE.

The standpipe has been thoroughly cleaned and painted, two coats on the outside, and presents a much better appearance.

METERS.

Thirty-eight meters have been added to the works during the year and six discontinued, leaving six hundred sixteen now in use. Of this number the consumers own two hundred ninety and the department three hundred twenty-six. Seventeen services are discontinued temporarily. Following is a list of meters :

Charles Curtis Greenwood

BY GEORGE KUHN CLARKE

In Memoriam.

Charles Curtis Greenwood was born June 20, 1825, in the ancient Fuller house on Forest street in Needham, and was the eldest of three children of Captain Abijah and Charlotte (McIntosh) Greenwood. Captain Greenwood, who got his title in the militia of Needham, was a native of Dublin, New Hampshire, but came to Needham with his parents in 1815 and on January 24, 1824, bought of Aaron Smith, Esq., administrator of the estate of Moses Fuller, the old Fuller homestead and lived there for the long period of sixty-five years.

The Captain came of a sturdy race of English descent, and reached the age of eighty-nine years, lacking a few weeks, a remarkably vigorous and active man in his old age. The writer has seen him when he was upwards of eighty-five mowing in his field, and performing other labor on his farm. Charlotte McIntosh, his wife, was a daughter of Major Ebenezer McIntosh of Needham, and granddaughter of Colonel William McIntosh, who was a man of national reputation, having won fame as a brave and able officer in the war of the Revolution. The Colonel was probably of Scotch ancestry. In his boyhood, Charles Greenwood lived the active and wholesome life of a farmer's son, at that time but little different from the lives of the youth on the New England farms a century earlier. He attended the district school, and the private school of the Rev. Daniel Kimball, and made the most of his opportunities, acquiring an education, which included some knowledge of the Latin language. He felt all his life a great respect for the Rev. Mr. Kimball and often spoke of him with praise and with appreciation.

When under fifteen years of age Charles was employed in the grocery store of Clark & Winch of Natick, but the business was small and the firm parted with their young assistant in the spring of 1840. A letter written at that time by Nathaniel Clark to Captain Greenwood, contains a testimonial as to the honesty and capacity of the son. The following year Charles was in the employ of Abel Spaulding, a grocer on Bromfield street, Boston. Subsequently he worked for many years making or finishing shoes in a small shop on the east side of the road, opposite his home, it being then the custom to do this work in small shops scattered through the towns. When about forty years of age he engaged in the real estate business, having an office with James Gray in Boston.

His insurance business, which became of much importance to the people of Needham, as he was thoroughly reliable and trustworthy, dated from 1870 and occupied much of his time the remainder of his life. He represented several of the best companies and had the confidence of every one.

At an early age he showed antiquarian tastes, which, notwithstanding his characteristic modesty, gained him a wide reputation as an accurate and well informed genealogist and local historian. For many years he gathered together old papers and pamphlets which contained material for the history of Needham, and his collection became a most remarkable one, including documents more than two hundred and fifty years old and bearing the signatures of such officials as the first Town Clerk of Dedham.

Nearly forty years ago Mr. Greenwood began to transcribe the inscriptions in the graveyard on Nehoiden street, and later made a condensed copy of the records of the Town from 1711 to 1866. In 1864 he contributed a valuable genealogical and biographical paper to "The Gazette," published in Dedham, and this was followed in subsequent years by many other articles in different publications. During the period that he went regularly to Boston he devoted his leisure to research in the State Archives, and in the Suffolk Registries of Probate and of Deeds, a labor which consumed a vast amount of time and was expert work, there being then no proper indexes. To trace the ownership of lands in our Town prior to its incorporation was particularly difficult, the name Needham being then unknown, and the descriptions vague and indefinite.

During the seventies he published some historical matter in the Town reports, and in 1883, when the history of Norfolk County was in preparation, he contributed important chapters. About eleven years since he began to copy verbatim the early Town records, and twenty-five articles appeared in the Needham Chronicle, covering the years 1709-1720. Unfortunately, the fire which destroyed the Odd Fellows Block, consumed the reprints, which were to be issued in book form, and the result of his labor was in a great measure lost. In 1890 he began to publish in the Dedham Historical Register the "Needham Epitaphs," with notes, and this most valuable series has been pronounced by persons competent to judge, the best thing of the kind yet printed in America.

Many persons buried in Needham were born elsewhere, and to obtain the dates of their births, the names of their parents and other appropriate facts, required an extensive correspondence and persistent efforts. The epitaphs exceeded six hundred in number, of which nearly two-thirds were published by Mr. Greenwood, and two hundred since his death, with the writer as editor. It is expected that the whole will be completed in April, and issued in book form as a reprint, and there can be no doubt that Mr. Greenwood's work will increase in value as the years go by, and be frequently consulted. His name still appears as a contributor in each number of the Register, published by the Dedham Historical Society, of which he was an esteemed member for thirty-five years. Since the general interest in genealogical and historical matters, dating from about 1876, he has been in constant receipt of letters containing inquiries which he cheerfully answered, ever ready to share with others, without compensation, the fruits of his labor. No man was ever more generous in this respect, and membership in several historical societies was offered to him, but declined. Much regret has been expressed that he did not give to us a history of Needham, for which he had every qualification, but he knew that it would take years to prepare a history which would be up to his standard, and he never felt equal to the task.

This sketch would not be complete without some mention of his diary, which was commenced about 1850 and continued to the last. He not only recorded his private affairs, but noted events in the town, which renders this manuscript well worthy of preservation for the use of future generations. So full were these notes that a gap of four years in the records of the First Parish was in a large measure filled by extracts from this diary.

Although of a Methodist family, attending in his youth the Church in "The Hundreds," near the Weston line, and after 1832 the Methodist Church at Newton Upper Falls, he was for many years a prominent member of the First Parish in Needham, a regular attendant at its worship, and in 1855-56-57 and 65 a member of its Parish Committee, and from March, 1870, to December 29, 1879, Parish Treasurer. The removal of the meeting-house from its ancient site was very distasteful to him, and he frequently spoke of it with regret.

Such a man as Mr. Greenwood could not be excused from the public service, and at the age of thirty he was elected a selectman, re-elected in 1857 and then declined the office. In 1863 he represented this district in the General Court, and in 1875 could have had the nomination of the Republican convention for State Senator, but refused to make certain pledges. In 1882 he came within one vote of the nomination for Representative. When a very young man he had associated himself with the Free Soil Party, and was one of the first members of the Republican Party in this Town. On December 23, 1870, Mr. Greenwood was appointed postmaster at Needham, although he did not agree to personally perform the routine duties, and continued as postmaster until September 30, 1885, when he resigned. For the greater part of the time John T.

Saville was the assistant in charge of the office. For more than twenty-five years Mr. Greenwood held a commission as a Justice of the Peace, and often prepared deeds and other legal papers, always correctly and with care.

From 1863 to 1875, inclusive, with the exception of one year, he served the Town as an auditor, and from 1866 to 1882 as assessor, and was chairman for several years. When the Town was divided in 1881 no name but his was seriously considered for the important position of Town Clerk, which demands a wide range of knowledge, and for sixteen years he was annually re-elected, and died in office. "Take him for all in all, we shall not look upon his like again." Genial in his manner, of the strictest integrity, entirely competent, and possessing most extensive information, as a town official, as an insurance agent, as a citizen universally respected wherever he was known, his death is deplored and his memory will be cherished. He died on Monday, June 7, 1897, at a quarter before one o'clock in the morning, after a long illness, which he had resolutely resisted, pursuing his accustomed occupations until within a week of his death. His remains were interred in the Greenwood lot, in the cemetery where he had spent so many hours faithfully studying the memorials of by-gone generations.

He married in Medfield, March 20, 1867, Miss Myra Smith, daughter of James and Hannah Brown (Gay) Smith of Needham, and had two children: Myra Charlotte Greenwood, born March 17, 1870, died May 6, 1871, and Charles Jackson Greenwood, born April 21, 1872, died August 15, 1872. The loss of these children was a great affliction to the parents and was keenly felt by them for long years. Mrs. Greenwood, a most faithful wife and efficient helpmate, in full sympathy with her husband's tastes, and a lover of flowers, and interested with him in making the grounds about their home beautiful, survives him.

For thirty years he lived in the house which became his home at the time of his marriage, and there went many of our citizens, and often strangers, all of whom were sure of a cordial greeting and knew that they were dealing with an honest man.

Well may it be said of Charles Curtis Greenwood, as he affectionately wrote of his old teacher, the Rev. Daniel Kimball:

“He was an esteemed and most useful citizen.”

GEORGE K. CLARKE.

Report of the Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE TOWN OF NEEDHAM :

We herewith submit a report of the expenditures under our direction as Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, together with the reports of Superintendent of Streets, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department and Police, showing in detail the work of the year, and trust that the general results will meet your approval. It only remains to call attention to what has been done and what should be done in the immediate future.

STREETS.

The duties of Superintendent of Streets have been performed by Mr. David F. Henderson, whose service in eighteen hundred and ninety-seven was well approved, and we believe that his work during the past year has fully justified his reappointment. It must always be borne in mind, when judging of the work of repairing and improving streets and roads, that it is absolutely impossible to accomplish all that can be desired in any one place or direction with the limited amount appropriated, especially when we consider the high standard which the times demand. The heavy rainfalls during the early summer did extraordinary damage to the roads in many places and necessitated unexpected repairs, causing the postponement of ordinary work until later in the season, and in some cases until the next year. We think, however, that nothing has been neglected that safety requires. Mellen street from Highland avenue to Webster street has been constructed as laid out by the Selectmen and accepted by the town. That portion of Highland avenue, from a point near the house of John F. Bowers to Mellen street, which has always been in a demoralized condition in the spring of the year, has been thoroughly reconstructed: the old material being removed and replaced with crushed stone, in regular layers, the whole compacted by a steam roller and surfaced with the best gravel. The near future will show the quality of the work and we venture to hope will prove it to be first-class. Other details of work done in different parts of the town will be found in the report of the Superintendent of Streets. After much trouble and expense the railroad company has been compelled to widen their bridge on Hunnewell Street and it will be necessary in order to make the whole width of the bridge available for travel, to construct retaining walls to the approaches of the bridge on the line of the street. This should be considered in making the appropriations for highways. Several large tracts of land in different parts of the town have been recently laid out and developed into building lots, many of which have houses built upon them; others will be occupied in the near future. Some of the lands thus opened have streets graded with good material, and sidewalks constructed ready for travel. Others have only streets marked out and the loam removed without any construction of roadway or proper grade. In view of the probability that each year will bring an increasing demand for the laying out and accepting of new streets, to be maintained at the public expense, it would seem that the town, by some form of resolution or by-law, should prescribe that streets located over private lands for the purpose of developing building sites should not be laid out and accepted as public ways until properly graded and constructed of suitable material for ordinary travel. Such a measure would be in conformity with the practice in neighboring municipalities and only just to all the people in all parts of the town. We earnestly recommend that action be taken in this line. The supply of gravel is nearly exhausted and it will be necessary to take measures at once to secure a source of supply. This will demand an appropriation of money. The expense of removing snow during the year has been very large as will be seen by reference to the detailed report, two very heavy snow storms, one in February, and one the last of November, having occurred, blocking the roads and impeding travel to an extent not before experienced in recent years. When the public demand that not only the roadways but sidewalks shall be shoveled out, and paths made in snow when the fall exceeds two inches, it will be seen that "breaking roads" is a more expensive luxury than in our "grandfathers' days."

We regret the death of Patrick Murphy, an employee of the Highway Department, which occurred on October 7, 1898, resulting from injuries received while endeavoring to avoid a bank slide in Hewett's pit on Central avenue. While it appears to have been an accident for which no person can be held to blame the question of pecuniary liability will be the subject of judicial inquiry, suit having been brought against the town to recover damages in the sum of $5,000.

Charles A. Searcy, not being satisfied with the usual salary as received by him in former years while acting as superintendent of the fire alarm, returned the checks sent him by the Treasurer on the order of the Selectmen for the last year's salary and brought suit against the town for a much larger amount. This suit has not yet come to trial.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Fire Department, under the same Board of Engineers as last year, has maintained its high standard of efficiency and deserves commendation for readiness for service at all times, both night and day, and promptness in responding to the call to duty. We claim that this department is second to none in this vicinity, both as to equipment and personnel, and hope that it will be so appreciated and fostered by the people of the town as to retain in its service the same high quality of men now attached to it. The town is to be congratulated on the fact that all fires occurring during the year have been confined to the buildings in which they originated. No building within reach of the water-main has been wholly destroyed.

INCIDENTALS.

The appropriation for incidentals shows a considerable deficiency, accounted for by the fact that a large amount of insurance on school houses expired during the year, which following the policy of the town adopted long ago, we have renewed for five years with the addition of the high school building, which is also insured for five years, making a large draft for the premiums. There being no special appropriation we were obliged to charge it to "Incidentals." This amount will not be called for again until the term of five years has elapsed.

ELECTRIC RAILROADS.

A franchise has been granted the Natick and Cochituate Street Railway Company and the railway has been constructed over Great Plain Avenue from Wellesley to the railroad crossing in Needham. The company has agreed to commence running regular trips on the first day of April next. We have no doubt that this will be a great convenience to the people and tend to increase the prosperity of the town. A franchise has also been granted to the Needham and Boston Street Railway Company to construct a street railway over and along Great Plain avenue, from the railway crossing in Needham to the Dedham line. The same company has been granted a right to construct a track from the Dedham line over and along Needham street to Bridge street in Dedham, the purpose being to connect ultimately with a line from Dedham to Boston. The franchise granted in Needham requires that the railway be ready for business on June first, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine. The Board will be asked to allow a slight change in the route, as given above, not affecting the connections.

STREET LIGHTS.

Under the contract with the Eliot Falls Electric Light and Power Co., we have taken advantage of the option and elected to continue the contract in force for a term of five years from the first day of October, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and are still dealing with that company or its successor, although by an arrangement made between the two companies, the Greendale Chemical and Electric Co., is supplying the current. In making the change from one system to another there have been some necessary interruptions and irregularities, but we are assured that soon everything in regard to the street lights will be satisfactory and we shall enjoy the usual good service. There being a demand generally throughout the town for commercial and domestic electric lights, the right to erect poles and wires in certain streets for the transmission of the current has been granted to the Greendale Chemical and Electric Co., and the system is in successful operation.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

At the last annual town meeting, it was voted that the Selectmen and Chairman of the Assessors, George K. Clarke Esq., be a committee to suitably mark the graves of the Needham Soldiers of the American Revolution. The labor and research necessary to locate and identify the graves of the patriots of Needham whose valor and devotion helped to achieve our National Independence has been performed by Mr. Clarke, whose familiarity with the records and interest in local history renders him peculiarly fitted for this work. His report herewith presented will be found interesting and valuable to the local historian.

STREET SIGNS.

Guide-boards and street signs have been erected in places where needed and those dilapidated and illegible replaced with new. There are still others which should be supplied during the coming year.

POOR DEPARTMENT.

The duties of the Overseers of the Poor are among the most arduous and perplexing of the many devolved upon this Board. We have endeavored to meet them with prudence and justice. The expenses in this department have been large, the excess being caused mainly by two cases demanding continuous nursing, being subjects of age and infirmity. One of them is still in the Newton Hospital and the other is being cared for by his sister in a neighboring State at an expense to the town much less than if he were in this state. At present there is only one of our charges in the Wellesley Almshouse. One is boarding at a private house in Newton. Several receive partial support from the town of Ipswich. The calls for aid in the form of rent continue and quite an amount is paid out in the aggregate under that head. It is a question well worth discussing whether the time has not come when this town should own a place in which to care for its poor. There are many considerations which make it appear a measure of economy. Perhaps some cases which now are obliged to go to the Newton Hospital might be cared for in such a home. We recommend that this subject be referred to a committee with instructions to examine the subject thoroughly and report with such recommendations as shall appear expedient.

We append estimates of appropriations necessary for the several departments in charge of this Board for the current year.

EDGAR H. BOWERS,
WALTER HEWETT,
CHARLES E. STANWOOD.

Selectmen.

Report of Committee on Graves of Revolutionary Soldiers.

TO THE SELECTMEN:

GENTLEMEN:—As your colleague on the committee appointed by the town at its last annual meeting to carry into effect its vote to suitably mark the graves of the soldiers from Needham in the war of the American Revolution, I make the following report in compliance with your request: We have purchased twenty-nine bronze markers at a cost of three dollars each, and twenty-seven of these markers were placed on graves in the cemetery on Nehoiden Street in October, and two in December.

The names of the soldiers thus remembered are as follows:

Colonel William McIntosh, Captain Caleb Kingsbury, (commander of our minute men.)
Captain Robert Smith,
Captain Eleazer Kingsbury (wounded April 19, 1775).
Lieutenant Silas Alden,

Sergeant Thomas Fuller,
Sergeant Eleazer Fuller,
Corporal Jeremiah Daniell.

PRIVATES.

John Bird,
Michael Bright,
Timothy Broad,
Henry Dewing,
Josiah Dewing,
Timothy Dewing,
William Eaton,
Amos Fuller,
Moses Fuller,
Robert Fuller,
Solomon Fuller,
Jonathan Kingsbury, Jonathan Kingsbury Jr., (he was an officer late in the war.)
Joseph Kingsbury,
Moses Mann (member in 1780 of our committee of "Correspondence, Inspection and Safety," consisting of three, and was a soldier both from Natick and Needham.)
Gideon McIntosh,
Royal McIntosh,
Lemuel Mills,
Josiah Newell,
Isaac Shepard,
John Slack.

It is a fact worthy of mention that with few exceptions the men named in the foregoing list served not only on the memorable 19th of April, 1775, but subsequently in the American army.

There appears to be no reasonable doubt that Lieutenant Oliver Mills, Sergeant Jonathan Gay, and other soldiers of the Revolution were buried in this graveyard, but the exact spots are unknown to the undersigned.

Of the five men killed at West Cambridge April 19, 1775, and whose names are on the large granite monument erected in 1851, four were buried near the scene of the fight, and the body of one only, Elisha Mills, was brought home, and interred here, it is said, not far from the monument.

We also had fourteen soldiers, whose last resting place is in the limits of the Town of Wellesley, and it is expected that markers will be provided for their graves in 1899 by that town. Their names are as follows:

Captain Aaron Smith,
Sergeant William Fuller,
Sergeant Ephriam Stevens,
Sergeant Joseph Daniell,
Corporal Samuel Brown, (there is an iron marker on his grave placed there by a descendant.)
Corporal Timothy Hunting,
Drummer Ephraim Bullard.

PRIVATES.

Jonathan Deming,
William Deming,
Enoch Fisk,
Ebenezer Hunting,
Samuel Pratt,
Aaron Smith, Jr.,
Daniel Ware.

In the graveyard on North Main street, Natick, are the remains of three more of our soldiers, viz. :

Jonathan Dunn,

Moses Fisk (also was a soldier from Natick, and there is a bronze marker on his grave.)

Benjamin Ward.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE K. CLARKE.

Needham, January 20, 1899.

Report of Superintendent of Streets.

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF SELECTMEN OF THE TOWN OF NEEDHAM:

GENTLEMEN:—I here submit the report of the street department for the year ending December 31, 1898.

The people of Needham voted sixty-five hundred dollars ($6,500) to build Mellen street and care for about forty miles of highways. I have found it extremely difficult to give a reasonable degree of satisfaction to all with that amount of money.

The year's work commenced with the repairing of Great Plain avenue from the residence of Mr. Levi Ladd to that of Mr. Augustus Eaton. This part of the road was not built safe enough to admit light travel to pass when the frost was coming out in the spring. The loam and gravel was removed to the depth of twelve inches and used in surfacing a sidewalk from the residence of Mr. Walter Bowers to Webster street. The road bed was filled with small stone from the neighboring fields and a layer of crushed stone five inches in depth, and surfaced with good binding gravel from Miller's pit.

The stone at the crusher was crushed and used in the reconstruction of Great Plain avenue.

The engine, stone crusher, elevator and platform was moved to Hewett's pit and set up by the men who work on the highways at an expense of seventy-four dollars and fifty cents ($74.50.) The engine house not being suitable for use, the lumber of the same with some new material was used in building a house in sections and bolted together, so that it can be taken down and moved at any time with little expense.

Four thousand two hundred and forty-five feet of Greendale avenue was graveled from the residence of Mr. Charles P. Harvey to the residence of the heirs of Charles A. Blackman, at an expense of one hundred and ninety-two dollars and seventy-five cents ($192.75.) This is a road used more for pleasure than for heavy teaming. If this road had a few hundred dollars a year expended on it, it would become one of the finest avenues in the town for pleasure driving.

Highland avenue, from Mellen street to the house of the late Sherman Bowers, was the worst piece of road in the town. This was excavated to the depth of two feet, the material being used in the construction of Mellen street, making the building of this street much cheaper.

The subgrade of Highland avenue was filled with large stone to the depth of fifteen inches, this covered with six inches of smaller stone, and a six-inch layer of graded crushed stone, and surfaced with good binding gravel. A steam roller was used to roll this street. A pipe, one foot in diameter, was laid from one to three feet in depth on the outside of the street, connecting with the catch basins.

In the building of Mellen street, the loam was removed and used in grading the grounds of the Avery and High School house lots. The street is straight and has been built with a good grade, being several feet higher at the Webster street end than at Highland avenue.

The junction of Hillside avenue and Rosemary street being dangerous, the street was widened to the width of eighty feet. Several hundred feet of land was given by Mr. William Carter for this purpose. The widening was not expensive as the material used was quite near and furnished by Mr. Carter.

Chestnut street was repaired from the residence of Mr. Thomas M. Falvey to the residence of Mr. John Sullivan.

The small stone used in the subgrading was given by Mr. E. G. Pond and Mr. F. A. Townsend, and covered with gravel from Ingols' pit, then surfaced with binding gravel from Hewett's pit.

There have been nearly five thousand lineal feet of streets where stone and crushed stone has been used in the reconstruction.

There have been four miles, one hundred and ninety-six rods of roads graveled in town this year; almost six and one-half miles of gutters scraped, and one mile, two hundred and eighty-nine rods of sidewalks repaired.

The town has had two bad snow blockades, one in February and the other in November of 1898. It would be well if the citizens would take into consideration the fact that we have a large amount of roads and that it is impossible to break out all of them. I have instructed those in charge of the roads to break out the main and most traveled first.

HOSE.

There are four thousand five hundred and fifty feet (4,550) of cotton jacket hose in the department; the table below will show where the different grades are located. The citizens of Greendale have asked for some hose and one of the old hose reels located in their district; in order to do so it will be necessary to purchase a small amount for that purpose.

STATIONS.

I feel obliged to call your attention to Stations 1 and 2, both of which need some repairs, painting and shingling. There has been nothing done outside since their erection twelve years ago.

APPARATUS.

The apparatus is in good repair and consists of two hose wagons, one two-wheel hose cart, one hook and ladder truck, one hand fire engine and two old hose reels, formerly belonging to the hand fire engines, one of which is stationed at Grove st. A new hose cart was purchased for hose No. 3, to take the place of the old reel and there were swing harnesses purchased for the hose wagons which has made a great difference in hitching up and getting out in good time. I recommend swing harnesses to be purchased for the truck this spring as this piece of apparatus responds to nearly all alarms. There were two fire extinguishers placed on each wagon. The horse accommodation for hose No. 2, having been very unsatisfactory the past two years, the board decided to build a stall and a place for a man to sleep, as a party offered to sleep and keep his horse there nights, which will be very beneficial to the efficiency of the department.

I would recommend to have poles made for the hose wagons so as to have two horses in the winter season, the load that is carried being too heavy for one horse.

HYDRANTS.

The number of hydrants in service Jan. 1, 1897 was one hundred ninety-four (194), twenty-six (26), having been added the past year making a total of two hundred and twenty (220). I would recommend a hydrant located on West st. three hundred (300) feet back of Carter's block opposite Low's block; in case of a fire of any size the department would be delayed in having to lay hose from Hunnewell street, that having the nearest hydrant back of Carter's block.

CONCLUSIONS.

In conclusion I wish to thank the officers and members for their untiring efforts and loyal assistance in performing the duties which as a department are properly expected of us. To the assistant superintendent of fire alarm as well I am under obligation for the faithful manner in which he has kept up his line of work.

Fire Alarm Telegraph.

This, in my opinion, being one of the most important branches of the town's service, I feel it my duty to call your attention to the adoption of storage battery to take the place of the present gravity system, practical tests in other towns and cities having demonstrated the superiority and great economy of the storage over gravity battery for fire service, and there being no question but that by its use better results can be obtained at less expense. The cost of maintenance is about one-third that of the gravity cell. The charging current supply could be taken from the local light company or from one of the electric railroads at a small cost, in many instances it is furnished free gratis.

The fire alarm has been well taken care of and has given good results throughout the year. We had a little trouble by some mischievous person tampering with it at the time of changing superintendents last May, but it was finally stopped after discontinuing the private station No. 332. In looking over the different circuits, I find it will be necessary to renew some of the old wire; about three miles of it is practically worthless, it being badly rusted and worn out in many places. On the north circuit the line wire should be renewed as far as Highlandville, and I would recommend running a new line down Highland avenue instead of the present location on the steam railroad.

On the south circuit the line wire is very poor, excepting the new extension that was put in three years ago. I would recommend making a connection at the corner of South and Chestnut streets; run new wire up South street, as the poles are all in. The distance is not so long as it is on the steam railroad line, and it would be much easier to keep in repair, the west circuit, which will be moved to the electric road poles. The poles and the line wire should be removed to Nehoiden street. The north, south and west circuits running from the station have been removed from the buildings in the coal and lumber yard and located farther south on a pole by themselves. Some of the wire was not worth putting up and was replaced by new.

I feel obliged to call your attention to the matter of allowing persons to run electric wires over the fire alarm wires, and avoid any trouble that is liable to occur in the future, as the state law requires all low tension wires to be run overhead of high tension wires.

The fire alarm consists of 38 miles of line wire, 21 signal stations on street boxes, 3 tower strikers, 7 gongs, 3 of which are private; 4 tappers, 1 of which is private; 1 5-circuit switch board, 1 fuse board, 1 current indicator, 1 test clock, 100 cells battery.

Appropriation, $400.00.

Unexpended balance, $54.87.

Supplies on hand, Dec. 31, $38.75.

Respectfully submitted,

H. A. KINGSBURY.

The list of periodicals given above includes some of the more important publications, and magazines of general interest. The current numbers are to be found on the reading-room tables and the back numbers, which are placed in the magazine case, are easily accessible to the readers. It is now hoped that they will fulfil the mission for which they were intended, to interest and instruct. The reading room is commodious, well lighted, heated and ventilated, the furnishings are beautiful and comfortable, and quiet and order is the rule. There seems to be no reason why the patrons should not enjoy the benefits to be found there. The additional stack room has made it possible to open all the bookshelves to the public, except those containing fiction.

It has been the policy of the library for some years to allow the teachers of the public schools to take out a number of books at a time to be used in their school work. Though many have not availed themselves of this privilege, yet it is a move in the right direction and in the line of education. Arrangements may be made, when feasible, for students, classes and study clubs to use books on the premises aside from the general reference books in the reading room.

The library has also received during the past year gifts of back numbers of magazines, Old Farmer's almanacs, pamphlets, etc., from Mr. Richard Hills, Boston, and from Mrs. Selma E. Berthold a number of volumes of German magazines.

Librarian.

Report of the Trustees of the Free Public Library.

The year 1898 has been eventful in the history of our library. Last summer the Trustees obtained permission to occupy two large rooms in the High School building, until needed for school purposes, and the library was closed for eight weeks during the autumn in order that it might be removed to its new quarters. On December third the library was opened to the inspection of the public, exercises being held in the large hall, and on the seventh the books were ready to be delivered to readers.

The new rooms have been handsomely and appropriately furnished in oak by the Library Building Fund Association at an expense of $687.15. This much needed change to a suitable place has been welcomed by the citizens, who can now avail themselves of the library under favorable conditions, in a room adorned with upwards of twenty fine paintings, kindly loaned by Miss Helen M. Knowlton, an artist of recognized ability.

A card catalogue of all our books is desirable, and we now have cards for about seven hundred volumes. To catalogue the rest of our library is a long task, and it will probably be necessary to employ a cataloguer for some weeks. A proper card catalogue is of the greatest convenience and assistance to readers as soon as they become accustomed to its use.

We have been fortunate to retain the services of our librarian, Mrs. Dunn, and wish to express our appreciation of her efficient management, and of the large amount of extra work which she has performed, without charge, the past year. The Trustees must not neglect to mention the valuable and gratuitous services rendered by Mr. Dunn during the removal of the library in 1898, and constantly for a series of years.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE K. CLARKE,

Report of School Committee.

The school committee respectfully submit their annual report together with that of the superintendent for the financial year ending December 31, 1898.

The year 1898 has been an important one in the history of our schools. During this time the new high school building has been completed and occupied. The Kimball building has been painted and the walls of the school rooms tinted for the first time. A completely new system of heating and ventilating similar to that in the high school and Avery has been put in and comfortable toilet rooms for both boys and girls have been made in the basement. No sessions of the schools have been closed thus far this winter in this building, as has so often happened in the past, on account of cold rooms. New desks have been provided for the Eliot building for the old double ones, and the rest planed and varnished so that the rooms have been brightened, the children made more comfortable, and the teaching made easier.

The appropriation for alterations and repairs for the Dwight school was expended in re-shingling the building, relaying the chimney outside the roof, whitewashing the ceiling and planing the desks in one room. So well satisfied are the committee with the process of planing, scraping and varnishing school-desks and chairs adopted last year that it is their intention to have all the old desks renewed in this way. Already nearly half the work has been done. The desks thus treated are practically as good as new. The cost of new desks ranges from $2.00 to $4.00 apiece according to size. The cost by this process is 50 cents. No repairing done in the school buildings has brought about such good results at so little cost as this.

The Avery, the Kimball, and the high school are all now equipped with the most up-to-date system of heating and ventilating. If the systems are well managed, our children are now sitting in properly heated rooms, breathing pure air without being exposed to the danger of getting colds either from drafts of air from windows, or from poorly heated rooms. The committee have tried as far as possible by tinting the walls, etc. to make the school-rooms look bright and attractive. But attractiveness of a more artistic order may be brought about by using these walls for art educational purposes. A good beginning in school-house decoration has already been made by the alumni and friends by the hanging of pictures and placing of busts and statuary in the high school. This has been done with a definite aim and does not mean the indiscriminate hanging of all sorts of pictures side by side. Only those of the old masters, or those representing some special period of history or places alluded to or described by the great poets and prose-writers should have a place in the school-room. The committee hope that this work will not stop until all our schools from the lowest grade to the highest have something of the best in art. The cheap process of photographic reproductions of the old paintings place these pictures within our reach.

The committee have been fortunate in retaining during the year nearly all the teachers in their employ in 1897.

It is a well recognized fact that the continuous service of a corps of efficient teachers is an important factor in the progress of the schools. To get the best results there must be a united intelligent effort throughout the whole system towards a common goal. If we may judge by results, and this is the main criterion, the schools of Needham are making that progress which the constantly enlarged appropriations for their better equipment and service demand. These results are best seen in the better preparation of the pupils who enter the high school, and the higher standard of scholarship of our high school graduates. Our graduates are able to pass the examinations to the larger colleges without advanced study. Much praise is due to the untiring labor and enthusiasm of the principal and his assistants for this condition of things. Our high school is now located in its new quarters, in a large commodious structure, of beautiful architecture and admirably well arranged for school purposes. In this building so far as is possible are all the modern improvements in school-house economy—the regulation size of rooms (28 x 32)—the proper amount and diffusion of light, a heating and ventilating plant called “gilt edged” by the state inspector, the best desks and seats, the latest laboratory appliances. The manual training rooms, laboratories, and heating plant are in the basement, the laboratories on the third floor, and the class-rooms, teachers rooms, committee rooms, and assembly hall are on the first and second floors. All the conditions are present for the best kind of work on the part of the pupils. The building will accommodate 250 students which is more than two and one half the present number, (89).

With the advent of this building the committee are obliged to call for a larger appropriation. We recommend $14,600 for schools, including the salary of the superintendent, $900 for incidentals, and $1,100 for books and supplies. We also ask for $100 for painting and repairs for the Eliot school. For further information in regard to the schools, we refer the citizens to the report of the Superintendent.

Report of the Superintendent.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF NEEDHAM:

During the last year quiet progress has been made in the schools of this town. The unusually small number of new teachers has insured comparative freedom from abrupt changes. A liberal appropriation has gone far toward supplying the material needs of the schools. The cordial support of the school committee has strengthened superintendent and teachers. The outlook for the future is hopeful. All the teachers are working with intelligence, interest and zeal that promise to make the year eventful to the children who come under their influence. Intelligent co-operation of school officers, teachers, parents, children, and voters is expected to produce its natural effect in raising our schools one more round on the ladder of progress.

THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The completion and occupation of the new high school marks an era in the school history of Needham. The progress of the work was closely followed by interested citizens. Many more examined the completed building at the dedication and at the formal opening for inspection. A detailed description in this report would be superfluous. It is sufficient to notice that it satisfies a long-felt want and gives an opportunity for the further development of an already prosperous and progressive school. The town has wisely avoided the mistake of makeshift provision for present needs only, and is to be congratulated upon its far-sighted provision for years to come. Needham now has a high school second to no building used by other towns where similar conditions prevail.

During the summer it was feared that a serious injury previously received by Mr. Godfrey would necessitate placing the administration of the high school in other hands. Fortunately Mr. Godfrey was able to resume his duties, but under conditions making it expedient to provide, at his expense, an additional assistant to relieve him of a portion of his burden. With this provision, it is believed that the interests of the school will not suffer from his misfortune. The sympathy of the committee and superintendent is extended to Mr. Godfrey. His complete and speedy recovery is greatly desired.

I repeat my recommendation of last year in regard to drawing in the high school. The present curriculum calls for immediate improvement in the direction of at least elective drawing opportunities. A corps of high school instructors seldom contains a teacher whose preparation for high school work has sufficiently provided for the advanced drawing called for in high schools. The necessary instruction should proceed from the supervisor of drawing. A small expense will provide for a weekly lesson to high school pupils. I cannot too strongly emphasize my recommendation that such a provision be made without delay.

A GOOD BEGINNING.

In this connection attention may be called appropriately to a gratifying beginning of providing works of art. The entire school committee, the alumni association, previous graduating classes, the "Quid Club," and Mr. Jones, are represented by pictures and statuary that now grace the new building. Much as we welcome this beginning in the high school, and much as we anticipate further gratification in the same direction, we must not reserve all our efforts for one school. Many children never reach high school influences. The refining tendencies of æsthetic surroundings should begin in the lowest grade. Let us hope, therefore, that hereafter not one of our seven schoolhouses will be forgotten in the distribution of the good things that speak for the highest culture.

MUSIC.

Owing to the resignation of Mr. Archibald, it became necessary during the fall term, to elect a supervisor of music. In choosing as his successor Mrs. Clara J. Marsh, a well-known music teacher of our own town, provision has been made for at least a bi-weekly visit to every school. Under her supervision we may reasonably hope that music culture will develop no less satisfactorily than heretofore.

A SUCCESSFUL RESTRICTION.

Beginning last April, the admission of pupils, after the opening of the school year, to the first primary grades, was restricted to children qualified by previous instruction to enter an existing class. A few parents were disappointed, but the result of the change has justified the action of the school committee. With nearly a year's knowledge of the restriction, parents are now able to provide for sending children for admission to first primary grades at the appointed time in September.

DISCIPLINE.

The problems of discipline are receiving the careful consideration of teachers and superintendent. New problems, not readily solved by previous experience, continually arise. It is not strange, therefore, that many teachers of long-approved experience and many more less experienced teachers sometimes fail to touch the buttons that produce uniformly frictionless movement of school machinery. Indeed, some teachers fail of the best results because of too great reliance upon school machinery and too little study of children. Human life, even in early years, shows inborn tendencies unfavorable to machine methods of external regulation. The best teachers recognize that human life and human conduct never approach ideal excellence unless actuated by inward motives and controlled by self-governing power. They realize that the teacher's sphere of discipline is to bring to bear upon the child such restraint, as he is unwilling, through native depravity, or unable, through immaturity and other inherent weakness, to impose upon himself.

Many a teacher fails in discipline because of unduly idealizing the unquestioned value of self-government. Knowing that self-government is the best form of government, she overlooks the fact that even in mature life we all fall short of perfect self-control. She expects of children a measure of self-government wholly beyond the sphere of childish attainment. Neglecting to supply just enough outward control to supplement the highest degree of self-control that she can develop in the children, she soon puts them upon a retrogressive basis, they rapidly lose or fail to exercise already acquired powers of self restraint, and she becomes a conspicuous illustration of the folly of unduly exalting a worthy ideal to the utter exclusion of other equally worthy ideals.

No superintendent can know all the experiences of a schoolroom when his eye is not upon it. But personal knowledge arising from frequent visits to the schoolrooms and from the reports of teachers, parents and pupils, convinces me that our schools, although still short of ideal discipline are tending toward such discipline. Already, in general, they have attained a position worthy of the teachers to whom they are entrusted.

Their chief difficulty lies in the "spirit of young America," which constantly asserts itself to an unwarranted degree, showing the absence, in many families, of the proper cultivation of respect for elders and superiors. In former days, discipline too often consisted in the mistaken efforts of parents and teachers to "break the will" and crush the individuality of children. We welcome the advent of better days. But the reaction has resulted, to an alarming extent, in an impudent exhibition of contempt for authority, or, at least, in an unconscious assumption of unwarranted independence. Conspicuously beautiful, by contrast, and highly creditable to their parents is the good breeding of all children who fit the places which the composition of human society designs for their occupation.

ATTENDANCE.

There is ground for belief that the state laws relative to school attendance are not uniformly observed. The legislature of 1898 made more stringent provisions for compelling attendance. For the benefit of many who are not acquainted with the requirements of the law, a statement of its leading provisions is here given.

Attendance upon a public school is compulsory for all children between the ages of seven and fourteen for the entire time the public schools are in session. No allowance for unexcused absence is permitted. This provision does not apply to children who attend private day-schools approved by the school committee or receive instruction equal to that given in the public schools. Children whose physical or mental condition is such as to render attendance inexpedient or impracticable are also exempt from the provision of the law.

Parents and guardians are required under penalty to keep children at school. Any person who, having control of a child between seven and fourteen years of age, fails for five day sessions or for ten half-day sessions within any period of six months to cause such a child to attend school as required by law, shall forfeit and pay a fine of not more than twenty dollars.

Other persons come within the penalty of the law. Any person who induces or attempts to induce any child to absent himself unlawfully from school or employs or harbors, while school is in session, any child absent unlawfully from school, shall forfeit and pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

The authority over absent children is not limited to fining parents and other persons. Three classes of children may be committed to truant schools or elsewhere: (1) Habitual truants,—children between seven and fourteen years of age who wilfully and habitually absent themselves from school; (2) habitual absentees,—children between seven and sixteen years of age who may be found wandering about in the streets or public places, having no lawful occupation, habitually not attending school and growing up in idleness and ignorance; (3) habitual school offenders,—children under fourteen years of age who persistently violate the reasonable regulations of the school which they attend or otherwise misbehave so as to render them fit subjects for exclusion therefrom.

Enlarged power is given to truant officers. They are directed to inquire into all cases arising under the law and are authorized to take steps necessary to enforce it. Experience having shown that some school committees were delinquent in the enforcement of school attendance laws, recent legislation has dropped the former provision requiring truant officers to act under the direction of the school committee. Under the present law the truant officer is to proceed directly. Any citizen may give a truant officer information that will warrant action on his part. This, however, in no wise releases school committees, superintendents and teachers from a special obligation to give information, advice and aid to truant officers.

My purpose in devoting so much space to the school attendance law is to secure the co-operation of all who can contribute to its observance. The support of the school committee I can expect without further remark. The teachers will readily do their part. Truant officers will act when shown the necessity of action.

In the selection of truant officers I trust that care will always be exercised to get men whose zeal for enforcing the law will be equalled by their wisdom and tact in keeping the boys and girls in school without frequent resort to legal procedure. People who employ labor are urged to offer no inducements to bring children and parents into a violation of law. If every child of school age were duly attending school, instead of serving employers who look for cheap labor, the wages of older persons would be enhanced by a corresponding demand for their services.

The great factor for universal and regular school attendance, however, is the co-operation of parents and children. To them we should address our final appeal. When a parent realizes that one day's unnecessary absence inflicts an irreparable injury upon his child, he will make special effort to assist the child to an unbroken attendance. When we convince the child that the loss of a school hour is the loss of a priceless treasure, we insure his co-operation against parental indifference, ignorance or cupidity. Children are absent by parental consent no less frequently, perhaps, than by parental constraint. When the child eagerly longs to go to school, he often prevails even with home influences working against him.

Already, in this community, the zeal of parents and children renders unnecessary, in most families, a resort to the strong arm of the law. We look hopefully to an extension of this zeal into families that now need the law's correcting influence.

Before dismissing the subject of attendance, it is appropriate to notice that two classes—children under seven and children over sixteen—cannot be reached even by the rigorous penalty of commitment to truant schools or elsewhere. Such children, however, by irregular attendance are often a detriment to schools. Their right to remain in the public schools is subject to the reasonable regulations of the school committee. It is desirable to adopt local regulations designed to lessen the frequent cases of unnecessarily irregular attendance by these two classes of children.

EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS.

Closely allied to the attendance laws are the laws regulating the employment of minors. Knowledge of these laws is not general and it is, therefore, appropriate to call attention to them in this report.

It is unlawful to employ any child under fourteen years of age in any factory, workshop or mercantile establishment. No such child can be lawfully employed in any work performed for wages, or other compensation, during the hours when the public schools are in session. It is also unlawful to employ such a child before the hour of six in the morning or after the hour of seven in the evening. Between the ages of fourteen and sixteen children may be employed in a factory, workshop or mercantile establishment under restrictions that enable proper town and state officers to discover fraud and evasion of the law. Employers must keep on file age and schooling certificates from the superintendent of schools; lists of all such children employed, one of which lists must be conspicuously posted near the principal entrance of the building in which such children are employed; a list of all minors who cannot read and write in the English language. The name of every illiterate employe under twenty-one years of age must be included in this list and must be sent to the superintendent of schools.

Penalties for violations of this law are provided. Truant officers are authorized to visit factories, workshops and mercantile establishments and are required to report violations of the law to the school committee and to a state officer.

Only the most important provisions of the laws regulating school attendance and the employment of children have been noticed in this report. A careful reading of the full text of the statutes is recommended to all who are interested in the welfare of children.

A DESIRABLE INTRODUCTION.

The present organization of our schools favors the introduction of Latin in the ninth grade. To pupils whose destination is college, the earlier study of Latin would be of inestimable value in better fitting them to meet the exacting requirements of admission. Under present conditions, beginners of Latin are so rapidly advanced that many become hopelessly discouraged and abandon the struggle. An earlier beginning, under grammar school conditions, would provide for slower progress on surer foundations.

Latin, in either the grammar school or the high school, however, is not advocated solely for pupils with college aspirations. It has a definite educational value for other children both on its own merits and through its intimate relation to our own language.

An additional advantage remains to be noticed. In every grade of the public schools are found pupils capable of doing considerably more work than average pupils can accomplish. In their way to progress, the graded system puts obstacles which we should endeavor to remove. In the lower grades these obstacles are sometimes easily removed by extra promotions of "bright" pupils; but the gaps between classes widen grade by grade and promotion from ninth grade to high school, after the beginning of the year, is practically unknown and nearly impossible. Latin as an elective in the ninth grade—some towns introduce it as low as the seventh grade—would give such pupils employment needed to avert the tendency to fall into intellectual sluggishness for want of sufficient mental stimulus.

For the reasons already stated, the introduction of Latin as an elective in the ninth grade will be no rash experiment, and I unhesitatingly recommend this apparently desirable innovation.

MANUAL TRAINING.

In the last annual report considerable space was given to the advocacy of manual training in the public schools. It was then suggested that the new high school would provide facilities for a modest beginning in the schools of this town. These facilities are now available. To avoid repetition, I respectfully ask a careful reading of the arguments then advanced. Another year's observation of the educational value of manual training emphasizes my belief that further delay will deprive children of precious opportunities and that opposition to its introduction can hardly come from any person having an intelligent knowledge of it.

Step by step the State of Massachusetts is advancing in compulsory legislation on the subject. By moving a few miles, parents who feel the need of manual training can bring their children to schools where the State says it shall be given. Not many years hence the same authority will say that Needham must give its children manual instruction. Many progressive towns, not already under legal obligations to provide it, have voluntarily and successfully introduced it. Will Needham now, of its own accord, give the children this great benefit, or will it await the stern mandate of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts?

EIGHTH GRADE PUPILS.

The increased number of pupils admitted to the primary grades of the Dwight and Eliot schools has necessitated the assignment of an additional class to the higher departments of those schools. In these districts and in the Harris and Parker districts, the number of eighth-grade pupils is never large. Such pupils could be sent to the Avery and Kimball schools with no danger of crowding those schools. In view of the difficulty experienced in attempting to give proper instruction to so many classes under one teacher, it may not be undesirable, in the near future, to restrict eighth-grade classes to the Avery and Kimball schools.

KINDERGARTEN OPPORTUNITIES.

By the transfer of the high school classes to the new building, a portion of the Kimball school became unnecessary for present use. To a graduate of our schools who has received kindergarten training, permission was granted to open a room in the Kimball building for the accommodation of a kindergarten otherwise unconnected with the public schools. Several parents have availed themselves, at the price of tuition, of the opportunities thus presented. In many towns, private kindergartens have been the forerunners of public kindergartens.

As an easy transition from home life to school life, the kindergarten has proved a marked success elsewhere. The ideal kindergarten is neither a "play school" nor a sub-primary. It reaches back into the home and forward into the primary school. It prepares children for the greater demands of the following year. It gives considerable insight of form, color, number, natural objects and phenomena, useful occupations, etc., by methods that are neither irksome nor otherwise unadapted to the tender child-age. Every song, every game, every occupation, has an important bearing in awakening the mind and soul of the little child. So valuable are its methods that even primary teachers, subject to the necessary limitations of their work, are adopting them in modified form.

A successful kindergarten available to people of means creates a demand for equal opportunities for all children. Without advocating the immediate opening of a public kindergarten and without even venturing to predict the results of this private enterprise, we may well determine to notice its effect upon public opinion in anticipation of a possible demand for the kindergarten as a branch of the public school system.

WORK OF THE IDEAL TEACHER.

The community at large little realizes the consecration of body, mind and soul that characterizes the true teacher.

No other occupation furnishes superior opportunities for usefulness and in no other field do the workers approach more nearly the ideals appropriate to their calling. Teachers are found, indeed, who little realize and far less attain high ideals. Sooner or later, fortunately, they fall out of the ranks. The profession may fairly claim, therefore, the honor of intense devotion to the work with which it is entrusted. The teacher's work is comparatively obscure. He has little opportunity to pose for public applause. He must pursue the even tenor of his way, never fully appreciated by those whom he instructs, hardly appreciated by the families for whom he works, and almost unknown by those who have no direct personal interest in his schoolroom. Yet with little hope of renown, with scarcely a hope of exceptional financial remuneration, with almost no incentive but a zeal for the welfare of those entrusted to his charge, he plods on, enduring exhausting physical demands, often misrepresented, often suffering in silence unfounded charges that he cannot disprove, and keeping the fountain of his life bright and sweet under conditions tending to make him discontented and unhappy.

CONCLUSION.

Public schools speak for themselves. Their work cannot be concealed. Their doors are always open to admit the interested observer. Whatever faults they have may appear to any one taking the trouble to look for them. The children reflect in the home the training received in the schoolroom. That so few of our adult population ever appear in the schoolroom is possibly an evidence of general confidence of the school system.

We are not content to rest in this confidence. Our schools would be the better, if citizens, in general, from personal visitation, knew more about them. We should, perhaps, be shown that we have fallen into unobserved ruts. We should learn what our people expect of us. We should be encouraged by words of appreciation. We should be stimulated to make our schools more and more worthy of further visits which might be anticipated.

Our visitors, too, would be stimulated, by contact with school life, to greater zeal in the maintenance of the schools. Their limitations, their possibilities, their wants, would be studied outside of official walls. The inevitable result would be increased moral and financial support, accelerated progress of the children at school and at home, a broadening and deepening of the already mighty stream of influence proceeding from the public school system.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY M. WALRADT,

Superintendent of Schools.

Needham, Mass., Jan. 16, 1899.

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING, NEEDHAM, MASS.

Report of the Needham High School Building Committee.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE TOWN OF NEEDHAM:

The committee entrusted with the duty of erecting a new high school has performed that duty, and the result of their labors has already been subjected to your inspection. The building is large enough to meet the needs of many years to come. It is well adapted to the purposes for which it was designed. Its exterior appearance is attractive, although rigid economy of ornament was imposed by the limits of the appropriation for its construction. It has been visited by many persons acquainted with high-school architecture and construction and declared to be unexcelled by any other high-school building erected in Massachusetts for an equal amount of money.

Your committee takes pleasure in announcing that the expense of the building has been kept within the appropriation of $33,000, as appears by the figures here submitted.

Ninth Annual Report of the Water Commissioners.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE TOWN OF NEEDHAM, MASSACHUSETTS :

The board of water commissioners herewith submit their ninth annual report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1898.

At the annual town meeting Mr. Frederic G. Tuttle was re-elected water commissioner for three years.

The board organized by electing Mr. E. G. Pond chairman and appointing George A. Adams clerk.

Mr. Charles H. Mitchell was retained as engineer at the pumping station and George A. Adams superintendent and water registrar.

EXTENSIONS.

The water main has been extended in Great Plain avenue from the residence of Mr. Augustus Eaton to Greendale avenue, and in South street from Great Plain to Dedham avenue, in accordance with a vote of the town. Also in Bradford street from Great Plain avenue to Gordon terrace, and in Harris avenue from Bradford street to the "Prince Farm," under a guarantee of six per centum per annum on the cost of construction. For length of pipe laid see superintendent's report.

PIPE.

The contract for furnishing the pipe and specials was awarded to R. D. Wood & Co., of Philadelphia, at $19.40 per ton of 2,240 pounds for pipe and $1.90 per cwt. for specials.

PIPE LAYING.

The contract for laying pipe was awarded to Joseph Bruno of Boston, at the following prices: 19 cents per running foot for 6-inch and 22 cents for 8-inch.

SERVICE PIPES.

The contract for laying service pipes was continued for another year with Buckley Brothers of this town, at the same prices as heretofore.

WATER SUPPLY.

In our last report we recommended the purchase of the tract of land north of the "Town Spring" for the purpose of increasing and protecting our water supply.

The town took action on the recommendation, and "Voted that the Water Commissioners be instructed to obtain by purchase, or otherwise, such additional land as they may deem necessary, for the purpose of increasing and protecting the water supply of the town."

In accordance with the foregoing instruction we had the valley surveyed and a plan made, which includes the following land: 5 acres, 38,070 square feet, belonging to M. R. Gates; 7 acres, 29,061 square feet, belonging to F. P. Glover and 58 acres, 24,750 square feet, belonging to the heirs of Emily E. Colburn.

We have purchased the entire Colburn property for twelve thousand ($12,000) dollars, which will be transferred as soon as the necessary papers can be prepared.

We have been unable to obtain the "Gates and Glover lots," although the offers made were, in our judgment, as high as the value of the land to the town would warrant, and after a thorough investigation, and a study of the future water supply of Needham, we are of the opinion that it would be unwise to seize the land.

Your Commissioners realizing that it was necessary to make an effort towards increasing the water supply, engaged Mr. Louis E. Hawes, C. and H. E., to confer with them as to the best method and plan to adopt, and after a careful study of the whole situation, the following proposed plan was decided upon, which is incorporated in a communication to the State Board of Health as follows:

TO THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH,

ROOM 141 STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, MASS.

Acting under the authority of Chapter 375 of the Acts of 1888 we hereby give notice of our intention to add to a system of water supply in the town of Needham, Mass., as herein described and desire your co-operation in establishing the same. The plans are now being prepared and will be submitted later.

Respectfully yours,

NEEDHAM WATER BOARD.

By GEORGE A. ADAMS, Clerk.

The proposed plan sent with the foregoing communication is as follows :

The present water supply of Needham is from the ground at the site of a very large spring in the valley of Colburn Brook, the water shed above the supply well having an area of about one square mile.

The quantity of the supply is ample for the present and for some time in the future, but on account of the uniform rate of inflow of water into the well the demand in a very dry season would cause unreasonable hours of pumping in order to secure the necessary quantity, and if for any reason the standpipe should be empty when the water in the well is drawn down, much apprehension would be felt for the consequences in case of fire.

For these reasons and to secure greater economy in pumping, and be prepared for a cycle of low rainfall which is probable after the present cycle of rather high rainfall, it is proposed to add to the supply by providing further means for securing ground water from the water shed of the present supply. To accomplish this it is proposed to sink another well or provide filter galleries or conduits, or both in the sand and gravel basin between the present well and the pumping station. To aid in keeping the ground saturated above the supply well it is proposed to construct a storage basin either above the location of the wells in the valley of the brook, or below the wells near the pumping station in the sandy basin before mentioned.

The latter location seems preferable, inasmuch as considerable spring water now wasted would be intercepted, the water table in the near vicinity of the wells would be maintained higher, more water would pass through the reservoir creating a better circulation and there would be a large body of water near the pumping station, which, although not to be used direct, its presence would give an added sense of security in considering the possibility of a conflagration co-incident with an empty standpipe and low water in the well. The reservoir would be excavated to uniform depths and protected against impure surface water by a sand filter dam where the brook enters.

Incidentally it is proposed to convert the brush meadow of about 15 acres between the pumping station and present well into a modest park of which the water basin covering 2 to 4 acres would be an agreeable feature.

The work of cutting brush and clearing up the land was commenced Sept. 20, and at the same time the well drivers commenced to sink wells along the line of the dam of the proposed reservoir for a foundation, also for the best location for the proposed supply well, and from tests made at this time the largest quantity and the best water was found in the west side of the town lot, so it was decided to sink the supply well in this locality. The work was advertised and proposals received for completing the proposed supply well, but before the contract was awarded we received an answer to our communication to the State Board of Health, as follows :

OFFICE OF THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH, STATE HOUSE,

BOSTON, November 17, 1898.

TO THE NEEDHAM WATER BOARD,

NEEDHAM, MASSACHUSETTS.

GENTLEMEN: The State Board of Health received from you on September 23, 1898, an application under the authority of Chapter 375 of the Acts of 1888, giving notice of your intention to increase the system of water supply for the town of Needham and giving an outline of your proposed plan for adding to the supply by providing further means for securing ground water from the watershed of your present supply, as follows:

“To accomplish this it is proposed to sink another well or provide filter galleries or conduits, or both, in the sand and gravel basin between the present well and the pumping station.

“To aid in keeping the ground saturated about the supply well, it is proposed to construct a storage basin either above the location of the wells in the valley of the brook or below the wells near the pumping station in the sandy basin before mentioned.

“The latter location seems preferable, inasmuch as considerable spring water now wasted, would be intercepted, the water table in the near vicinity of the wells would be maintained higher, more water would pass through the reservoir creating a better circulation, and there would be a large body of water near the pumping station, which although not to be used direct, its presence would give an added sense of security in considering the possibility of a conflagration co-incident with an empty standpipe and low water in the wells, the reservoir would be excavated to uniform depth and protected against impure surface water by a sand filter dam where the brook enters.”

Subsequently a plan was submitted by your engineer showing the proposed location of a well in the valley of the brook, about 440 feet southwest of your present well, between the present well and the pumping station, together with the location of the proposed dam across the brook a short distance above your pumping station, but below the location of the present and proposed wells, and approximate outlines of the reservoir which would be created thereby.

From this plan it appears that the shores of the pond will be at the nearest place within about 225 feet of your present well, and that to avoid flooding the ground in the immediate vicinity of your proposed new well it is proposed to raise the level of the ground so that the line of flowage in the pond will be at least 90 feet from the well.

The consumption of water in Needham has increased very rapidly in the last few years and there are indications that the supply from the present source would prove inadequate for the supply of the town in a dry season, and a suitable additional supply should be provided without delay.

The board has carefully considered the proposed plans and has caused the locality to be examined by its engineer and a sample of the water from the test well at the location of your proposed new well to be analyzed. It appears that a test well at the site of your proposed new well yields water freely at a rate of about 60 gallons per minute when pumping with a hand pump, and the results of the analysis of a sample of the water sent in by you from this well, indicate that its quality at the present time is good, being about the same as that of your present source of supply. Observations upon the height of water in the test well and in your present well, show that when pumping from the present source the level of the water in the test well is affected to a considerable extent, showing that the ground water in the vicinity of your proposed well is already influenced by pumping from your present source.

No test has been made to determine the probable quantity of water that can be obtained from the ground in the vicinity of this test well in addition to the quantity now obtained from your present well.

The proposed well would be located close to the edge of the water shed of the brook on its southerly and westerly sides, while on the northwesterly and northerly sides tests of the ground have shown that ledge comes to within nine feet of the surface in places. It also appear that ledge was encountered in the test well at a depth of sixteen feet beneath the surface, and the indications are that the stratum of porous material from which water can be obtained is not of considerable depth or extent.

It is a part of your plan, however, to create a small pond near the well by means of which it is expected to saturate the ground and thus increase the yield of these sources. It is impossible to determine beforehand to what extent the water of your proposed pond would filter through the ground to these wells, but even if a large portion of the flow of the brook should enter the wells through the ground it is doubtful whether the yield of the wells would be sufficient to supply the requirements of the town of Needham if a dry year should occur in the immediate future. It may also happen that imperfectly filtered water from the pond may enter the wells and have an unfavorable influence upon the quality of the water causing it to contain an excess of iron or organic matter and making it objectionable for many uses.

In view of all the circumstances, the board does not at present advise the adoption of the methods now proposed for increasing the water supply of the town of Needham, but would advise a farther investigation with a view to obtaining a larger quantity of water than would probably be made available by the proposed new well.

It is desirable to increase your supply if possible by further works in the vicinity of your present well. A single test well in a small valley east of your present well indicates that porous soil may be found in that vicinity at a considerable depth beneath the surface, and under the circumstances, it seems desirable to make further tests in this valley to determine whether any considerable additional supply of ground water may be obtained there.

It is also desirable to make a careful examination along Charles river, near your present pumping station to see whether a suitable additional supply may not be obtained near that stream.

The Board will co-operate with you in such further investigations as you may decide to make by making such analyses of samples of water as may be necessary and will upon application, give you further advice in this matter when you have the results of further investigation to present.

By order of the Board,

Signed,

SAMUEL W. ABBOTT,

Secretary.

---

After receiving this communication it was decided to call "all bids off" on digging the supply well and make further investigations in the easterly side of the valley as recommended, and it has been demonstrated by the tests made that the stratum of porous or water bearing material is of greater depth and extent than on the westerly side and the wells in this vicinity yield water to the full capacity of the hand pump used, which is more than double the yield of those in the locality of the proposed supply well before mentioned. And from present indications it seems advisable to carry out the original proposed plan with the exception of the location of the supply well which should be in the easterly side of the valley instead of the westerly as first proposed.

BONDS.

March 15, 1898 the town "voted that the water commissioners be authorized and instructed to petition the legislature of 1898 for authority to procure land by purchase or otherwise for the purpose of protecting and increasing the water supply, also for authority to issue additional water bonds, to an amount not exceeding fifty thousand (50,000) dollars."

The instructions of the town have been carried out and the authority asked for has been granted by the legislature, (see Chapter 426 of the Acts of 1898.)

The bonds were printed and the town in July authorized the sale of the same.

Bonds were sold in September to the state to the amount of twenty-five thousand (25,000) dollars, (twenty thousand dollars of the last and five thousand dollars of a previous issue.) The premium received was $1,391.60.

Two thousand (2,000) dollars of matured bonds have been paid during the year, and there are thirty thousand authorized which have not been sold.

All waters containing suspended matter, excepting ground waters which contain a large quantity of iron, are filtered through filter paper, before determining the color and residue on evaporation. Occasionally these determinations are also made on the unfiltered water, the results in such cases being indicated by an asterisk.
